> This staunch old truism holds good in dealing with Real Estate as forcibly as in anything else. Capitalists investing in Toronto property through us get the benefit of our experience and advice, hence their success and often very large profits. We have not been tempted away from central business property and we can refer to our clients, all of whom have made money in their dealings through our office. We have a few cheice corners in which money can be profitably B. J. GRIFFITH & CO.,

ROCKS OF SHARBOT LAKE. ective Charlie Siemia Nabs Burgl Mike Spellman While Stealing a Ride o the Montreal Express — A Despera Straggie-Pearce and Jarvis Escap One at least of the three young but who so desperately and cleverly broke thro the iron bars of Governor Green's castle ac the Don has been recaptured. Detective Charles Slemin is once more to the fore an has again had an opportunity of exhibiting his skill and intrepidity as an officer of t ective staff in securing one of the r notorious young criminals ever sent across Don. Before break of day yesterday moing a desperate and dramatic scene enacted near Sharbos Lake station, to entre of a rocky wilderness at anction of the Kingston and Pemb and Ontario and Quebec railways, about 175 miles east of Toronto. The atrust that took place aroused the passengers repoing comfortably in the sleeping coaches of the Moutreal express and kept them talking of the coaches of the coaches are considered to the coaches of the coaches are considered to the coaches are coaches exciting occurrence] until at break of day to cars rolled into the C.P.R. station at Ottav When Detective Slemin took the train for the Capital at 8,45 Tuesday night he expressed his intention of spending most of the night of the platform instead of engaging a berth.

firmly believed that the three escaped priers, Michael Spellman, George Pearce Thomas Jarvis, would make for the e Spellman's relatives being residents of Browille. He was not mistaken, as the result Three Shadows in Front When near Sharbot Lake, and while train was still in rapid motion, Detect Slemin, who was in one of the rear con thought he saw three shadows jumping to the steps of one of the front cars. His sus-cion was aroused, for he could not divi-where the three owners of those shadow could have sprung from in so lonely as d-solate a spot, and moreover none but ter he saw the three shadow once more, this time jumping off the platform of sar. The detective leapt after them in the black darkness two of the taree in the black darkness two of the three di appeared. Spellman was the last, and after hot chase the detective, who is a reput sprinter, brought his man to bay, overpower him after a life-and-death struggle and boasing the train landed him in the Ottajail two hours later. It should atted that Detective Slemin had be sent to Ottawa on Tuesday night to briback Chinton Clapp, a young man arrested the Capital by the police of that city on atructions from our police for larceny. I fore leaving Union Station Tuesday nig Slemin expressed an almost bositive opinithat he would run across the escaped borgh heading for the east on the Ontario and Q bec Railway. He told Inspector Stark that was so positive about this that he would no to bed at all until he reached Ottawa.
