THE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Women's Institute had an enjoyable meeting on Thursday afternoon. After the business had been concluded, school lunches were discussed and receipts given. The address given by Dr. MacMurphy, Chief of the Child Welfare Movement, at the Women's Institute Convention, at Truro, was read by Mrs. H. B. Hicks. A paper on food value of milk by Mrs. F. W. Stevens. Also a paper on storing of fruit and vegetables by Mrs. R. L. Lessell.

Special guests at the meeting were Miss Gladys Newcombe, Miss Gladys Crowell, Miss Gladys Maitland, Miss Laura Hardy and Miss M. S. Macey. Teachers at Bridgetown. They were welcomed by Mrs. F. R. Fay. In her usual cheery manner, she told them that she wanted them to know that they have a warm friend in the Women's Institute.

Refreshments were served by the retiring officers. November being the time for the appointment of new officers.

The retiring officers are: President Mrs. F. R. Fay; Vice President, Mrs. J. J. Messenger; Recording Secretary, Mrs. R. L. Lessell; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. D. Newcombe; Executive, Mrs. W. A. Warren, Mrs. S. N. Wear, Mrs. M. E. Armstrong, Mrs. H. B. Hicks and Miss Mary Jost.

AN OLD RESIDENT VISITS BRIDGETOWN

The MONITOR had a pleasant call yesterday morning from Mr. E. C. Lockett, of South Mills, Queens County, N. B. Mr. Lockett is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Wm. R. Troop. He left Bridgetown forty years ago and visited here twenty four years ago. During his absence he has been a newspaper man, hotel keeper and police magistrate, but has now retired. He says that Bridgetown has very much improved in appearance with an increase of business during his absence but regrets that only ten of his old schoolmates now reside here. These of course are pleased to greet him and he has already made many new friends during his short stay, who will welcome his return.

ACCIDENT ON THE B. A. A. GROUNDS

His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. Henry B. Hicks, of the firm of J. H. Hicks & Sons, met with a painful accident on the B. A. A. grounds Saturday afternoon while assisting in the entertainment of the boys who were here attending the Conference. He is confined to his bed with a torn cartilage in the knee. We trust he will be favored with a speedy recovery. Mr. Hicks is one of our most enterprising citizens always ready to take part in anything that is for the good of the boys and for the town generally. While confined to his residence he is much missed in his office and in social circles.

A TREAT FOR LAWRENCETOWN

Lawrencetown theatre goes have a treat in store for them at the "Gem" tomorrow (Thursday) night. Mr. H. F. Sanford, the enterprising proprietor of that theatre has secured at a great expense the famous 7 reel picture entitled "The Great White Trail," an epic of the Arctic by Leopold D. Wharton. We assure our many readers in Lawrencetown and vicinity that they cannot afford to miss this great moving picture production. See ad. in another column.

SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT AT MOSCHELLE

About nine o'clock Tuesday morning, Oct 5th while Mr. B. G. Fair, was driving a double horse team up a hill near his home in Moschelle, he was struck by a passing automobile, which threw him down, breaking his nose, badly cutting his face, the wheels of the car passing over his legs. He was resting quite comfortably yesterday and it is hoped he will recover.

Local Happenings

Edward Ritchie, of Middleton won a silver medal in the "Herald" 10 mile race on Tuesday getting 21st place among 72 contestants.

Kentville Chronicle: Mr. J. Frank Oulhit has commenced the erection of a dwelling at Highland View. Messrs Denton and Condon are contractors.

The Lunenburg fishing schooner, Delawana, Capt. Himmelman, won the fishermen's race sailed off Halifax Monday. There was a fleet of nine starters.

Friday Oct 15th the officers and members of the Epworth League will be "At Home" to the members of their respective congregations. Program to begin at 7.30.

Next Monday being Thanksgiving Day the MONITOR office will be closed. All copy for advertising and village notes, etc., must reach us a day earlier than usual.

Mr. J. L. Foster has the editor's thanks for some splendid moose steak. Our friend "J. L." is a good shot. Whether at Bedford, Ottawa, or in the woods, he generally returns with a prize.

A full attendance is requested at Crookston, O. C. N. S. to tomorrow night when J. W. Peters, Past Grand will give a description of the big parade etc., held in Boston during the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The Noble Grand of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., asks us to announce that a full attendance is requested, next Monday evening, the 18th, to hear a report of the big meeting in Boston and to spend a social hour.

Mr. S. C. Hall has our thanks for copies of Boston papers containing full reports of the Oddfellows' big parade which took place in that city Sept 29th, consisting of 40,000 members 75 bands; procession took five hours to pass any one point along the route, witnessed by more than 300,000 people.

The inaugural meeting of St. James Church Organized Bible Class for the season 1920-21, will be held in St. James Church schoolroom, next Friday evening commencing at 7.30 as the election of officers and various committees has an important bearing on the success of the season's work. It is hoped that friends old and new will be on hand. The class is open to any and everybody interested in Bible Study.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Wherever possible in the Church of England, throughout Canada next Sunday will be observed as "Children's Day." This movement was inaugurated some years ago by the general Synod and has been developing ever since. The aim is not only to hold special services in connection with the Sunday School on that day, but to further impress upon the minds of adults in general and parents in particular the importance of this branch of the Church's work. As is customary, the children of St. James' Church, will attend the morning service next Sunday in a body. At this service the address will be especially for them. In the evening the rector will speak to parents and adults generally on "The claim of Young Life." It is hoped that both services will be largely attended. A special service will also be held in St. Mary's, Belleisle, at 3 p. m.

SHOOTING ACCIDENTS

His many friends regret to learn that Parlor Car Conductor Charles Clark, of the D. A. R., was accidentally shot through the foot while moose hunting and that he is confined to his home in Yarmouth. We regret to state Mr. Geo. Dixon, one of our most popular citizens, had his leg injured last week while moose hunting by the accidental discharge of a gun. He has been to Halifax for special medical treatment and is at present confined to his residence on Church St. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

The death of Mr. Lawrence DeLap Shaffner, which took place in Annapolis Tuesday evening, October 5th, cast a gloom over a large portion of this county and his death is learned with deep regret by a large circle of friends both in Canada and the United States. Mr. Shaffner who was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James E. Shaffner, was born in Lower Granville in 1864. Few men were more widely known and popular than the deceased. He married Miss Ida Demission, of Bridgetown, who survives him. He also leaves two children, Clarence, in Annapolis, and Helen D., who is taking a B. A. course in the Toronto university. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. E. M. Chesley, of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Etta Chaplin, of Monson, Maine, and three brothers, Wm. C. Shaffner, of Lower Granville, Charles, of Middleton, and J. L. of Granville Ferry.

The late Mr. Shaffner was a very successful business man. He was for several years in the grocery business in Bridgetown and in 1901 built the brick block now occupied by B. N. Messenger. For a time he did business in British Columbia, returning to his native province in 1915. He carried on extensive ship-building business, having launched vessels at Clementsport, Bridgetown, Meteghan, Port Greville, Granville Ferry and Annapolis, the entire output being more than 25 three masted.

He was a member of Bridgetown's first town council in 1897 and later served two terms as Mayor of this town. He was a Conservative candidate for the Dominion house of Commons in 1911, being defeated by the late Hon. W. W. Pickup. Mr. Shaffner had suffered for some years from diabetes, but had been able to be about in fair health latterly until about a week before his death.

He had practically retired from business and had under construction at the time of his death an expensive bungalow in the town of Annapolis, which will probably be finished by Mrs. Shaffner, to be occupied by herself and family.

He was a member of Rothesay Lodge, of Freemasons of Bridgetown, and a companion of Eureka Chapter of Royal Masons, Annapolis. His remains were brought to Bridgetown Tuesday afternoon by interment in the Riverside Cemetery. The burial service was conducted by Rothesay Lodge with full Masonic honors. The Annapolis Spectator says: His cheery presence will be greatly missed and the loss of his enterprising spirit will be much felt in this community.

FRANK RUGGLES

Blood poisoning following a cut from an axe, caused the death of Mr. Frank Ruggles which occurred at his home in Deep Brook Saturday at the age of 47 years. He was the only son of Mr. Charles Ruggles and is survived by his father and one sister, Mrs. G. Elbourne Nichols, of Bridgetown. He also leaves a widow, and son Ralph and daughter May Irene. He was a member of The Keith Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Bear River, a highly respected citizen and very popular with a large circle of acquaintances. The funeral took place from his late home Sunday with interment in the Clementsport Methodist cemetery. The service at the home was conducted by Rev. C. A. Munro, pastor of the Annapolis Royal Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. A. M. McNinch, pastor of the Clementsport Baptist Church, and Rev. A. W. L. Smith, rector of St. Clements parish. The burial took place with Masonic honors and the funeral was the largest one ever seen in Deep Brook.

WM. FREDERICK MORINE

The death of Wm. Frederick Morine, a highly respected citizen, of Bear River, occurred at his home on Thursday of last week at the age of seventy-nine years. Mr. Morine had been in failing health for some time, following an attack of paralysis. He was born in Bear River, and of a family of thirteen children only two are living. Mrs. Samuel Swift, and James Morine. Besides his wife, who was Miss Salome Wright, of Clementsport, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. John Curtis. The funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon by Rev. Gregg, pastor of the Bear River Baptist Church.
