June 22,	Dartmouth—Mr. Romans. St. John's—Mr. Romans. Sackville—Mr. Lyall.

The Presbytery having called for a statement of the financial affairs of the different congregations and stations within the bounds, returns were made for the following places: Cornwallis, Dartmouth, Goodwood, and St. Johns, Newfoundland.

Professor King brought before the Presbytery the case of Mr. W. G. Forbes, Catechist, who had now completed three sessions of his theological curriculum. He proposed that the Presbytery should appoint a Committee to examine Mr. Forbes in order to ascertain whether it might not be advisable to apply to the Synod, at its next meeting, for leave to take him on trials for license. The Presbytery agreed to this proposal, and appointed the following members a Committee to examine Mr. Forbes on the progress he has made in his studies, and to report to the Presbytery at their next ordinary meeting: The Modera-
