WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Bishop of Qu'Appelle and Mrs. Grisdale, before leaving Toronto, paid a visit to our parochial branch of the W. A. The Bishop gave an interesting address on the growth and prospects of his diocese. He spoke particularly of the Gordon schools for Indian boys, in which our branch has taken a lively interest, and warmly thanked the members for the good work which they had done for so many years, in clothing four boys and sending two bales every year.

The sewing meetings are now held on Monday afternoons, with a good attendance of members and satisfactory progress in the work. The Rev. M. Hare at one of the meetings gave an informal "talk" on Missions.

The annual meeting (D.V.) will be held on Wednesday, March 27th, in the school-room at 3 o'clock. It is hoped this important meeting will attract a full attendance of members and others interested in the work of their parish branch.

Parish Notes

On Feb. 9th the Rev. F. C. C. Heathcote, Rector of St. Clement's Church, preached on behalf of the Diocesan Mission Fund. The response to the appeal amounted to $240. The amount allotted to St. George's Parish is $497, towards which we can count upon $430, made up as follows: balance in hand $30, W. A. subscriptions $75, collection on Thanksgiving Day $85, the recent promises and payments, $240.
