

The Week.

HOME NEWS.

Sir Charles Tupper arrived at Rimouski on Saturday night in the steamer Parissim.

Ottawa, May 7.—The appointment of Mr. John A. Boyd, as Chancellor of Ontario, is gazetted to-day.

The steamer Canima, which sailed on Saturday night from Halifax for New York, took 3,973 bags and 1,530 barrels of potatoes.

The Grand Trunk receipts for the week ending April 20. Were $215,296, or $34,158 more than during the corresponding period last year.

The quantity of Dominion notes in circulation on the 30th of April was $14,170,728.50 with an excess of specie and debentures of $2,935,600.

Sir John Macdonald has engaged passage for England by the Parisian, the new "Allan" liner, which sails from Montreal on the 21st inst.

Me. Mrs. Dickey & Buckley are now slaughtering about forty head of cattle per day at their slaughter house at Amherst, for shipment to the English market.

Ottawa, May 7.—Judges Sinclair and Kingsmill, of the counties of Wentworth and Bruce, respectively, have been made Surrogate Judges of the Maritime Court of Ontario.

The resignation of Sir William Young, Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, makes a vacancy on the Bench of that Province. It is quite likely that he will be succeeded by Hon. James Macdonald.

The imports at St. John in April amounted to $478,141, against $392,312 for the month last year. The exports were $275,612 for the month this year, against $265,136 for the same month last year.

Montreal, May 6.—The Grand Trunk porters' strike terminated this morning. Mr. Hickson, the General Manager, having accepted the modified demands of the men, $1.15 per day. They were formerly getting 90 cents.

Ottawa, May 7.—A number of Ottawa merchants give notice in to day's Canada Gazette for letters patent of incorporation, as "The Dominion Sugar and Syrup Company," with a capital of $200,000; headquarters to be in this city.

Spring Hill, May 6.—A mad dog ran through Spring Hill on Wednesday night and bit eleven persons, men, women and children. Fatal results are feared. Three hundred people joined in the pursuit, and killed it. The brute knocked down men and worried children in the gutter.

Ottawa, May 7.—Prof. Sparrow, of Royal Wiltshire Agricultural College, who visited Canada last year as an agricultural delegate from England, has taken passage with his family for Quebec. It is understood that he intends to settle in the eastern townships, where he will engage extensively in stock raising.

The first shipment of fresh beef from Nova Scotia to England by Mr. Symes, was made from Halifax on Saturday, in the steamer Nova Scotia. The beef arrived early in the morning on a special train of six refrigerator cars, and were unloaded at North street freight depot, the beef transferred to trucks, and placed on board the steamer.

Messrs. Adams & DeCamp, New York, who recently purchased the Barton property at Tangier, N. S., have sold the same to the "Satemo Gold Quartz Co.," a wealthy corporation of New York, for $100,000 in the capital stock of said Company. This firm are negotiating several other valuable properties in the Province.

The revenue of the Dominion for the month of April is officially given as $2,384,559.57; Revenue to the 31st of March, 1881, $20,991,077.44; grand total, $23,375,637. The expenditure in the month of April amounted to $2,191,932.66; expenditure in the fiscal year to March 31st $1,685,765.083, making a total expenditure of $1,049,583.40 in the ten months.

Active steps are being taken to organize a Woollen Manufacturing Company in Hopewell, Pictou Co., N. S. The promoters propose a capital of $50,000, in 2,500 shares of $20 each, of which they propose to call in $20,000, or 40 per cent.; 20 per cent to be paid on or before the first of June; the balance of 20 per cent. in two instalments, at thirty days' notice. $15,000 has already been subscribed.

The Princess Louise, on her return to Canada, will be attended by her own physician, who will accompany the Vice-Regal party to the North-West. While at Winnipeg, the Princess is expected to formally open for traffic the Louise Bridge, across the Red River, named in her honor, and His Excellency will lay the cornerstone of the new Legislative buildings for Manitoba.

Recruiting to fill vacancies in the North-West Mounted Police Force is now going on at Ottawa, and an officer of the force will shortly visit Montreal, Quebec, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, and London, to engage men at those places. The terms of engagement are five years' service, with pay ranging from 40 cents per diem, the men being clothed and fed at the public expense. Extra pay is allowed to mechanics, such as blacksmiths and carpenters. About one hundred recruits are required.

NEWS FROM ABROAD.

New York, May 5.—The World's Fair Project has been definitely abandoned.

Chicago, May 9.—Mercury Sunday afternoon rose to 85, one case sunstroke reported.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—The City of Tokio, from Hong Kong and Yokohama, arrived to-day, with 1,049 Chinese aboard.

Rev. John C. Edgar, of Hubbardtown, Vt., who died recently, was one of the six hundred who rode "into the jaws of death" at Balaklava.

London, May 9.—Sir Edward Thornton discredits the report recently cabled from London that he is to be sent to St. Petersburg, owing to an important juncture in affairs.

New York, May 9.—The Army worm and Colorado Beetle (Potato Bug) appeared in large numbers in Long Island. The army worm are found mostly in spinach and sprout beds.

Chicago, May 5.—During April 80,000 to 95,000 emigrants from foreign lands passed through Chicago to settle in the North West, an increase of 40 per cent over the previous April.

London, May 8.—At a meeting of Conservative Peers to-day the Duke of Richmond will propose and Lord Cairns second, a motion that the Marquis of Salisbury shall lead the party in the House of Lords.

Durban, May 9.—The British residents in Transvaal are leaving no stone unturned to upset the settlement. There are exaggerated accounts of the doings of both the Boers and natives, but there is not sufficient truth in them to give cause for anxiety.

London, May 7.—The Queen and Princess Beatrice paid a visit to the tomb of Earl Beaconsfield to-day. They and the ladies-in-waiting were in deep mourning. They took a special train to Wycombe, and thence drove to Hughenden Manor. They were received at the gates of the manor by Lords Rowton and Harrington.

London, May 9.—The Daily News St. Petersburg despatch says: Neither General Melikoff nor General Milutine will succeed the Grand Duke Michael. A Council will be held on Tuesday, to give final shape to the resolutions establishing unity of the Administration. There is good ground to believe that a convocation of Deputies in some form will shortly be decided on.

London, May 5.—Gladstone to-day announced amid cheers that he will move on Monday next an address, praying the Crown to provide a monument in Westminster Abbey in memory of Beaconsfield, with an inscription expressing the high sense of the House of his rare and splendid gifts, devoted labors in Parliament and great offices of State, assuring the Queen that the House of Commons would make good the expenses attendant thereon.

At North Andover, Mass., two burglars, twin brothers, named Foster, sons of respectable parents, and of high repute as industrious, frugal and prudent young men, both of them two year students at Phillips' Academy, tried to burglarize the residence of Abiel Wilson, a wealthy bachelor. A revolver, a box of pepper and an iron poker found on the floor of his room were their weapons. The affair produces a profound sensation.

TORONTO GENERAL HOSPITAL,
Established 1810. Incorporated by Act of Parliament.

M. F. EGAR, Esq., Halifax, N. S.
DEAR SIR.—I am very highly pleased with the action of your Cod Liver Oil Cream with Hypophosphites. It has been used in this Hospital in Pulmonary and other Wasting Diseases with success, and being so palatable, is a splendid substitute for the Crude Cod Liver Oil. Will you kindly let me know the lowest wholesale rate for a quantity for hospital use?
(Signed) Yours truly,

Toronto, Nov. 30, 1880.

C. O'REILLY, M. D., C. M.,
General Superintendent.

The following are a few of the many hundreds who have derived great relief from the use of EGAR'S PHOSPHOLEINE, and whose certificates can be seen at Mr. Eggar's store.

E. C. NEWBURY, S. H. SUGART, JOHN LEE,
MR. BLUM, ALEX. S. BAYER, ALEX. MCKAY,
JOHN PALMER, JOHN REARDON, JAMES JACKSON.

One bottle Eggar's Cream will accomplish more than one dozen bottles of Oil in Wasting Diseases, and patients find the benefit on taking the first dose.

Some of these Physicians who have given testimonials in former years in favor of other preparations have since been convinced that there is NOTHING EQUAL to EGAR'S CREAM, and consider it the BEST and CHEAPEST at any price, on account of its effecting its cures promptly and unfailingly, its pleasant taste and agreeing with the most delicate stomachs.

If you cannot procure Eggar's Cod Liver Oil Cream from the shops in which you deal, send to Mr. Eggar, 147 Hollis Street, Halifax, enclosing the price, and he will forward to your address. Mr. Eggar will send six bottles to any part of Nova Scotia; free of all Express charges, on receipt of price. Don't allow others to induce you to take other preparations on which they may make a large profit, but insist in getting EGAR'S PHOSPHOLEINE or CREAM.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

is the same as that of the best Schools in England, and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Pupils are prepared to pass the Local Examinations of King's College, Windsor. Within the last two years, thirteen pupils have passed these Examinations, three of them gaining the title of "Associate of Arts."

A few students can be received, who, having finished their general education, wish to devote themselves to Music, Languages, or Art. Arrangements are made whereby they can give the whole of their time to these special subjects.

There is a Preparatory Department for Young Pupils. The Musical Department is under the care of a lady from the Royal Academy of Music, London. The French Government is a native of Paris and has the Diploma of the French Academy. The Head English Governess, besides having passed the University of Cambridge Examinations for Women, has also a certificate from the South Kensington School of Art.

A large reduction is made for the daughters of clergymen, and where two or more are sent at the same time from the one family.
