THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE. APRIL 1, 1859.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY, IN NEW YORK. The Annual Festival of Ireland's Patron Saint sems to have been celebrated with unusual splendor New York; where not even the dread of the in New Nothings," nor yet the fear of making Irishmen ridiculous in the eyes of Yankees, prevented our his friends from making a grand public demonstra-tion of their strength, numbers, and affectionate remembrance of the land of their birth.

The religious offices of "The Day" were performed at the St. Patrick's Cathedral; where High Mass at the St. Patrick's Cathedral; where High Mass was sung by His Grace the Archbishop of New York, esisted by their Lordships, the Right Rev. Bishop Loughlin, and the Right Rev. Bishop O'Connor.—The sermon was preached by the Rev. P. De Lugnes, g.J., and a handsome collection was taken up for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Bishop of Pittsburgh—the Right Reverend Dr. O'Connor—also addressed a large assembly in the Academy of Music; and in the evening the Sons of 8. Patrick met together around the festive board to moice with one another, and to mutually encourage one another in their love to old Ireland, and her Pa-ton Saint. The following accounts of "The Day," as celebrated in the other large cities of the United States, are taken from the N. Y. Tablet, and others of our exchanges :--

ALBANY, N. Y.

The celebration of St. Patrick's Day was exceedingly spirited. The streets were filled from morning antil night The atmosphere was as Spring-like and beautiful as could have been desired, and the sun ghone forth in all its brilliancy.

The usual religious services were observed at an early hour in the morning, at the Cathedral and the Churches, and were very largely attended.

ger:-Schreiber's Albuny Cornet Bund. Eamet Guards, Flank Co. L., 25th Regiment. Hongomery Guards, Co. B., 25th Regiment. Hiberoian Provident Society, with Banners. Young Men's Catholic Institute, (Cathedral) with

Saint John's Catholic Institute, with Bannner. Major James Swift acted as Grand Marshat, assist-Lieutenant James Dunn and Michael Clark as

After the formation of the line, the procession marched through Lydius street to the Cathedral, where Divine service was performed. That immense sdifce was literally crammed with people. The excroises were of a solemn and impressive character, and the music superb.

After Mass the procession formed in front of the Bishop's House, when a delegate from each of the societies mentioned above presented him with a donation from their respective societies, for his new throne, which is a beautiful piece of workmanship .li amounted to $250, of which the Emmet Guard gare $100.

The military turned out in very large numbers, and looked better than we have ever seen them before. That veteran Association, the Hibernian Proyident Society, preceded by its officers, made a large turn out, as also did the Literary Societies. The procession attracted much attention from our citizens as it passed along. So far as we could learn every-thing passed off in the most pleasant manner.

UTICA, N. Y.

St. Patrick's Day was more generally observed here this year than on any former anniversary of Ireland's Patron. The three military companies, and the "wearing of the green" by the sons of the Emerald Isle, gave to our streets an appearance of heliday gayety, unusual, except upon occasions of national rejoicing.

In the evening, about 150 persons sat down to a bountiful supper, at the Central Hotel, prepared in J. L. Davis' hest style, after which the President, F Kernan, Esq., gave as the first regular toast "The Ald, McQuade was called to respond He regretted that some person more competent had not been selected, as he could only "speak very poor English and worse Irish." He entered into the personal history of St. Patrick, briefly enumerated his virtues, and the benefits he had conferred on the world, and concluded by claiming for his fatherland, on many points, super-excellence.

2nd Pius IX. and the Catholic Hierarchy. In response to this toast, Rev. Thomas Daly said Pius IX., from his entrance on the pontificate, had nceived from men of all creeds the strongest testimonials of respect and reverence. It was, he said, secure of pride to the Catholic, that the constitution of his Church was ominently democratic. The occupant of its highest office was elected, and to that office any man might aspire, provided he had talent and capability, his birth would not be sought after. The representative of St. Peter had always been the protector and friend of the oppressed. He concluded by observing that the man who followed the teachings of his church, and the guidance of his pastor, was very just and good.

BALTIMORE, MD.

THE HIBERRIAN SOCIETY .- On Thursday evening the regular annual dinner of the Hibernian Society of Baltimore came off at the New Assembly Rooms, coraer of Hanover and Lombard streets. The guests began to assemble as early as five and a half o'clock la the reception rooms, where, divesting themselves of bats and overcoats, and hour was passed in plealant conversation and friendly greeting. About half-past six o'clock the order was given by the worthy President to pair off and proceed to the supper room. The entire company, numbering some eighty-five or ninety, lost by Hugh Jenkins, Esq., President, Daniel J. Foley, Esq., First Vice-President, and C. M. Dougherty, Esq., Second Vice-President, and C. M. Dougherty, and C. M. Dougherty, Esq., Second Vice-President, and C. M. Dougherty, and C deat, marched in procession up stairs to the dining toom, proceeded by Leithardt's Band, which, in the meantime, played "St. Patrick's Day."

PHILADELPHIA.

St. Patrick gave us beautiful weather yesterday, contrary to all precedent, and much to the delight of his many friends. The Hibernian element of our people celebrated the day with great fervor in many ways. High Mass was said in several of the churches, lectures were delivered by eminent people of the Catholic persuasion, and the military paraded. We looked at the soldiers as they passed up Chestnut threet about three o'clock, and a very fine looking body of men they appeared to be. Their drill was was excellent, and their bearing martial to a degree. They consisted of the Second Brigade, were under the command of Colonel Conroy, and turned out the following companies: - Emmet Guards, Shields Guards, Irish Volunteers, Meagher Guards, Jackson Guards, Hibernia Greens, Montgomery Guards, and Shields Rifles. In the afternoon the Hibernia Socieis had a meeting and a dinner. The dinner was exsellent and the speeches of a patriotic cast. Toward erening dark and threatening clouds obstructed the light of sun-but it did not rain, and the demonstration ended in vapor .- Press

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SHOOND ANNIVERSARY OF THE CRARITABLE IRISH SOCIETY. - This aucient Society met yesterday afternoon at the Parker House. The following gentlemen were chosen officers of the Society for the ensuing year: Patrick M. Philips, President; Hugh O'Brien, Vice-President; Thomas Coyle, Treasurer; Cornelius Doherty, Keeper of the Silver Scal, and William S. Pelletier, Secretary. After the termination of business meeting, the Society tween seventy and eighty gratlemen were present. am faithfully yours.

The President of the Society, Patrick M. Philips, occupied the chair. Several toasts were drunk and some very excellent speeches made. Volunteer sentiments followed, songs were sung, and at about 11 o'clock the Society adjourned to meet in 1860.

SALEM, MASS.

The celebration of St. Patrick's Day in Salem, on Thursday, was concluded by an address at Lyceum Hall, by Dr. Fitzgerald, and a supper at the Reading Room in Franklin Building. The address abounded in brilliant passages, containing rich historical references to the interesting career of Ireland as a nation, and filled with recollections which were evidently dear to the large and enthusiastic assembly of listeners. It was eloquently delivered, and indicated high intellectual capacity. The music at the Hall was well executed, and was composed of some of those beautiful airs for which Ireland is famous.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

THE IRISH AMERICAN SOCIETY.—The Anniversary of the birth of Ireland's Patron Saint, which occurred yesterday, was duly observed by our Irish fellow-citizens. There was no special public demonstration through the day, the observance being mostly confined to the evening, at which time appropriate services were held in the several Catholic Churches.— Panegyries on the life and character of the Saint were delivered at the Cathedral by the Rev. Peter Kelly, and at St. Patrick's by the Rev. Mr. Branagan,

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. It augurs much for Catholicity to find that in New England the festival of St. Patrick is honored with all solemnity. In this town there was High Mars at 8 o'clock, after which Patrick's Day was sung by The Emmet and Montgomery Guards assembled an efficient choir. In the evening the Church was crowded to listen to an address from the Rev. Dr. Neligan, of St. Joseph's Seminary, on the Life and Preaching of St. Patrick. The Rev. preacher showed in an eloquent and masterly discourse how Saint Patrick laboured in the conversion of Ireland, and that the effect of his labour were to be witnessed wherever the Irishman had settled : for there he unfurled the banner of the Cross. For more than an hour he engaged the attention of the congregation, who seemed much pleased with the manner in which they had spent the natal day of their Patron Saint, and next year they have resolved to have a proces-

CHICAGO, ILL.

The Hibernian Benevolent Society, with the Montgomery, Shields, and Emmet Guards, turned out in procession yesterday, and marched through the principal streets to the sound of cheering music. The procession made a fine appearance and attracted much observation. In the evening several balls and other festive exercises appropriate to the occasion took place, which were numerously attended. -Daily Times.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Yesterday was celebrated as the Anniversary of the Patron Saint of Ireland, by civic and military processions and banquets. It was very generally commemorated by our Irish fellow-citizens, male and female, and with unusual spirit and unanimity. During the day, several Irish military companies paraded, and made a handsome display, and a very impos-ing procession was organized by the St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Benevolent Association. It numbered some five hundred men, who displayed rich banners and regalia, and with swelling muric de-scribed the route from St. Peter's to St. Patrick's Church, in both of which there were appropriate religious exercises. This society was organized a year ago, and is now in a prosperous condition, over five hundred members being enrolled on its record. The afternoon was devoted chiefly to social enjoyment, and preparations for festivities at night.

UNITED STATES.

An Inebriate Asylum. - Four Hundred Female Applicants.—There has been lately established in New York a State Inebriate Asylum, and a proposition was recently made to the Legislature for an appropriation in its behalf. This proposition was unsuccessful, but it will doubtless be renewed hereafter. The New York Journal of Commerce, speaking of the appalling spread of intemperance, says that a large number of eminent names are being erased from the list of the living, where the true cause of death is never suspected by the community at large (the interposition of surviving friends saving their memories from indelible disgrace,) died of " delirium tremens," being the fearful secret. At least two on the list of subscribers for the contemplated asylummen who stood high in the profession of law and literature-are already victims to this insiduous destroyer. It has been asserted that men are not to be found who would voluntarily commit themselves to an institution for inebriates; but this is refuted by the fact that almost before the foundation stone was laid there had been 2800 applicants for admission, of whom according to Dr. Turner, Corresponding Secrotary of the New York State Inebriate Asylum, more than four hundred are women in the high walks of life educated and accomplished." There appears to be no room for reasonable doubt on this point.-N. Y. Paper.

A shoc-pegging machine has recently been invented in Massachusetts. Its operation is described as very simple. The shoe, fitted on a last ready for pegging, was placed in an iron frame or jack, attached to the machine, and borne up against it by the hand of the operator. The machine, being then put in rapid motion, seized hold of the shoe, gave it a rapid turn or two, and then after a few seconds of rattling and clattering, off came the brogan, with the sole firmly pegged.

If a bill now before the Ohio legislature passes that body, we shall have no more Ohio Congressmen elected by negro votes. The bill provides that judges of election shall reject all votes of persons of African descent, and that any such persons voting shall be punished by imprisonment.— Persons advising negroes to vote are also subject to a penalty.

Moved to indignation by a recent fight in the Indiana Senate, a member offered a resolution, providing that none of his associates should be permitted to carry weapons in the Senate Chamber, on penalty of expulsion. The resolution was rejected by a vote of 30 to 9.

A man named Charles Reed, who was on board the Central America at the time she was wrecked. and was picked up after floating upon a piece of timber twelve hours, was recently burned to death in his cabin in California.

REV. MR. RICHMOND'S CHALLENGE.-The universal challenge of Rev. Mr. Richmond to the "heretics" of the United States having received no attention from any of the challenged, we hope they will feel due awe when they read that gentleman's final proclamation, which we find in the Tribune as follows:—

Therefore, I now proclaim to the world, that the Arians, the Presbyterians, the Romanists, and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher cannot and dare not meet me; and I am free to confess, that, were I in their position, I would also refuse to come; for the Unitarian, Presbyterian, Congregational, and Romish systems are human, and not Divine—they are founded in error and falsehood. They cannot be sustained by argument, by history, by Scripture, by antiquity, by tradition, by the universal consent of Christians, up to the fourth century, and all of them, except the Latin, are less than four hundred years old. They fall before the Holy Catholic Church of God, whose Great High Priest, Chief Shepherd and Bi shop, and Great Vicar, is Obrist-that Church whose beginning is in Jerusalem, and whose age is eighteen and their guests sat down to a sumptious dinner, prepared in Messrs. Parker and Mill's best style. Bemeet all the hosts of schism and Sectarianism, and

A WARNING TO SCOFFERS .- At Milwaukie, as the Rev. Mr. Heiss, rector of the Bishop's Seminary, was crossing the railroad track in a buggy, the engine [he had heard no whistle] came suddenly upon him, and before he had time to think even of his escape, killed his horse and smashed his vehicle to pieces His preservation was miraculous under the circumstances, and was much talked of in the city. One "enlightened" German [whether Catholic or Protestant is not stated] in hearing the facts narrated, exclaimed, "It would have been no great loss, if the good-for-nothing priest had been killed." Two weeks after our scoffer, led out by some fatality, attempted to cross the track at the very spot where the accident happened to Rev. Mr. Heiss. The engine overtook him, knocked him down, and mangled him so cruelly, that he lived but two hours afterward. So excruciating was his agony during that time that he repeatedly begged of the bystanders to shoot him and put an end to his sufferings. The accident was even more talked about than the former, and left the impression on the minds of many, that it was something more than a mere casualty.

LEARN A TRADE .-- Under the delusive idea that a trade is not so respectable as a mercantile occupation, our stores are crowded with young men who have no capacity for business, and who, because of the fancied respectability of doing nothing, waste away their minority upon salaries which cannot possibly liquidate their expenditure. Too late in life they discover their error, and before they reach the age of thirty, many of them look with envy upon the thrifty mechanic whom, in their days of boyhood, they were accustomed to deride. The folse views which prevail in the "soidisant" fashionable society of the present day, have ruined thousands of young men, and will rain thousands more .-- Fitzgeruld's City Item.

More Henerics in the Church.-The British Ston. dard, a zealous "Orthodox" journal, very lately discovered, with deep sorrow, that the present lishop of London is not sound in the faith. The Bishop preached lately at St. Paul's, and, according to the Standard, his sermon had so little of orthodoxy in it that it "might have been delivered by a Jewish Rab-bi or a Unitarian minister!" This is very melancholy! But this is not all; still more recently the watchful Standard has discovered another heretic in the person of the learned Dean of St. Paul's [Dr. Milman]. "The Dean's divinity," says the organ of Orthodoxy, "is greatly at fault. It is not Scriptural.

STATISTICS OF POPULATION AND RELIGION .- The Director of the Statistical Bureau of Berlin furnishes the following curious statement:—"The population of the whole earth is estimated to be 1,288,000,000, viz .- Europe, 272,000,000 : Asia, 755,000,000 ; Africa, 200,000,000; America 59,000,000; and Australia, 2,000,000. CURED BY WISTAR'S BALSAN OF WILD

CHERRY. Read the following from the KINDERHOOK (N. Y.)

Sentinel, dated July 31:
"A remarkable cure of Consumption has recently been effected by this medicine, in the town of Chatham, in this county, and which was related to us by Herrick, an eminent Physician of that town, to whom we have permission to refer. A young lady who had long labored under an affection of the lungs, was considered by her friends as beyond the reach of medicine, and she was informed by her medical attendant that she must die. She was induced to send for a bottle of Wistar's Bulsam of Wild Cherry, as a last resort. The young lady experienced great relief, and two more bottles were successively procured and administered. She is now happy in the restoration of health"

Dist. of Mass.

13 Coughs.—The great and sudden changes of our climate, are fruitful sources of Pulmonry and Bronchial affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stage of disease, recourse should at once be had to " Brown's Broncial Trockes," or Lozenges, let the Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES. Cures Cough, Cold, Hoarseness and Influenza. Cures any Irritation or Soreness of the Throat. Relieves the Hacking Cough in Consumption. Relieves Bronchilis, Asthma and Caturrh. Clears and gives strength to the voice of SINGERS. Indispensable to Public Speakers.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.

[From Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who has used the Troches five years.]—" I have never changed my mind respecting them from the first, except to think get better of that which I began in thinking well of. In all my lecturing tours, I put 'Troches' into my carpet bag as regularly as I do lectures or linen. I do not hesitate to say that in so far as I have bad an opportunity of comparison, your Troches are pre-eminently the best, and the first, of the great Lozenge School."

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.

[From Rev. E. H. Chapin, D. D., New York.] "I consider your Lozenges an excellent article for their purpose, and recommend their use to Public Speakers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: — SCROPULA AND SCROPULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SAIN RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AT-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUBEUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSTEELAS, Rose on Sr. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Imputery or THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO. LOWELL, MASS. Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.
