

Field of application

6. For each participant this Protocol is applicable to exports of the products specified in Article I manufactured or repacked inside its own customs territory, whether the destination is temporary or final.

Transactions other than normal commercial transactions

7. The provisions of paragraphs 1 to 6 of this Article shall not be regarded as applying to donated exports to developing countries or to exports destined for relief purposes or welfare purposes in developing countries. Such exports, and other transactions which are not normal commercial transactions, shall be effected in accordance with the FAO Principles of Surplus Disposal and shall be subject to the procedures for notification, consultation and establishment of usual marketing requirements agreed upon in FAO.

ARTICLE IV

Provision of Information

All participants agree to provide regularly and promptly to the Management Committee established in terms of Article VII of this Protocol details of exports and imports of the products covered by this Protocol, and any other information the Committee requires in order to assess the functioning of this Protocol and the situation in and the evolution of the international market.

ARTICLE V

Co-operation of Importing Countries

Participants which import the products covered by this Protocol undertake in particular:

- (a) to co-operate in implementing the minimum price objective of this Protocol and to ensure as far as possible that the products covered by this Protocol are not imported at less than the appropriate customs valuation equivalent to the prescribed minimum price; and
- (b) to supply information concerning imports of the products covered by this Protocol from non-participants; and
- (c) to consider sympathetically proposals for appropriate remedial action if imports at prices inconsistent with the minimum price threaten the functioning of this Protocol.

ARTICLE VI

Food Aid

The participants agree:

1. In co-operation with FAO and other interested organizations, to foster recognition of the value of dairy products in improving nutritional levels and of ways and means through which they may be made available for the benefit of developing countries.
