

ARTICLE VIII

Miscellaneous Provisions

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as in any way diminishing, abridging or weakening the right of the Canadian authorities to safeguard the security of Canada, provided that the Agency shall be immediately informed in the event that the Government of Canada shall find it necessary to take any action against any person specified in this Agreement.

2. The Agency and a province of Canada may conclude an understanding on the activities of the Agency or on privileges in respect of matters coming under provincial law insofar as that understanding is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

Final Provisions

This Agreement will enter into force on the date of its signature.

This Agreement may be revised at the request of either Party. To do so, the two Parties shall consult on the modifications in question. In the event that their negotiations should fail to produce an agreement within the time period of one year, this Agreement may be renounced by either Party, upon giving notice of two years.
