
which will frustrate an attempt to penetrate the premises.

A rehearsal of the procedures to be followed by all occupants in the event of an attack or threat of an attack should be practiced to ensure that all will reach the safe haven without confusion or panic.

Warning

When planning your defenses, make certain that the locks you install on the doors and grills will be so designed that they will not prevent a rapid evacuation from the premises in the event of a fire.