- a market study that includes a forecast of commercial benefits likely to result from the activity;
- a detailed cost breakdown for the project;
- an estimate of the eligible PEMD contribution;
- your organization's qualifications for the activity and the relationship of the activity to your overall marketing plan. Provide details including number of years in operation, number of full-time staff, export budget and number of members. (Submit annual report if available.)