

ARTICLE 20

Italian Family Benefits

1. Subject to paragraph 2, a person who receives an Italian old age, disability or survivors pension shall also be paid family benefits for members of his or her family who reside in Canada, provided that the conditions prescribed in Italian legislation are met.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply in regard to a member of the family of a person who resides in Canada if a Canadian child benefit, other than one under the Canada Pension Plan, is payable for that family member.

ARTICLE 21

Cash Benefits for Tuberculosis

When a person does not meet the requirements of the legislation of Italy for entitlement to cash benefits for tuberculosis solely on the basis of the periods of contributions credited under the legislation of Italy, periods creditable under the legislation of Canada shall, to the extent necessary, be taken into account to establish such entitlement. These cash benefits shall also be payable to a beneficiary who resides in Canada.

PART IV

ADMINISTRATIVE AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 22

Administrative Arrangement

1. The competent authorities of the Parties shall establish, by means of an administrative arrangement, the measures necessary for the application of this Agreement.
2. The competent authorities and institutions of the Parties shall be indicated, and the liaison agencies of the Parties designated, in that arrangement.
