PRAYERS

Mr. Munro, seconded by Mr. Davis, by leave of the House, introduced Bill C-264, An Act to provide for the payment of benefits in respect of children, which was read the first time and ordered to be printed and ordered for a second reading at the next sitting of the House.

The text of the Message and recommendation of the Governor General printed pursuant to Standing Order 62(2) in relation to the foregoing Bill is as follows:

His Excellency the Governor General recommends to the House of Commons a measure respecting payment of benefits in respect of children; to provide that such benefits will be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund; to provide for the calculation of such benefits and the determination of the persons or institutions to whom they are payable and the times at which they are payable; to provide for the adjustment and protection of such benefits; to provide for the consequential amendment of the War Veterans Allowance Act and the repeal of the Family Allowances Act and the Youth Allowances Act; and to provide for matters in connection with the administration of the Act.

Pursuant to Standing Order 39(4) the following Question was made an Order of the House for a Return.

No. 1,599—Mr. Rodrigue

1. What are the names and addresses of the census officials and census commissioners hired by the government for the 1971 Census in the constituency of Beauce?

2. What salary does each receive?—Sessional Paper No. 283-2/1,599.

Mr. Jerome, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, presented,—Return to the foregoing Order.

The Order being read for the second reading and reference to a Committee of the Whole of Bill C-259, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act and to make certain provisions and alterations in the statute law related to or consequential upon the amendments to that Act;

Mr. Gray for Mr. Benson, seconded by Mr. Davis, moved,—That the said bill be now read a second time and referred to a Committee of the Whole;

And a point of order having been raised to the effect that the bill was defective in that certain of its provisions were beyond the terms of the Ways and Means motion which was concurred in by the House on June 30, 1971, Mr. Speaker deferred his decision.
