

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

The object of this Bill is to prevent the use of forgeries and counterfeits of the Union Label, to the intent that only those may avail themselves of the protection of the Label who conform honestly to Union Labour conditions.

1. Section four reads as follows:—

"4. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) 'general trade mark' means a trade mark used in connection with the sale of various articles in which a proprietor deals in his trade, business, occupation or calling generally;
- (b) 'specific trade mark' means a trade mark used in connection with the sale of a class of merchandise of a particular description."

2. Section five reads as follows:—

"5. All marks, names, labels, brands, packages or other business devices, which are adopted for use by any person in his trade, business, occupation or calling, for the purpose of distinguishing any manufacture, product or article of any description manufactured, produced, compounded, packed or offered for sale by him, applied in any manner whatever either to such manufacture, product or article, or to any package, parcel, case, box or other vessel or receptacle of any description whatsoever containing the same, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered and known as trade marks."
