

Social Credit Party—Con.

Opposed to principle of compulsion, 53-55
 Rehabilitation of nations after world war II, on, 233

Social Security, 644, 674, 692. See also Old Age Pensions

Soft Drinks, tax on. See Candy

Solicitor General, transfer of functions to Minister of Justice, 5

South Korea. See Korea

South Saskatchewan River irrigation and power project, expenditures, qu. (Mr. Diefenbaker) 529, 679

Soviet Russia. See also Communism

Aggression, 90-95, 117, 133, 214, 519-20, 621, 654. See also under this title, Imperialism

History of, 258

Technique of, 138, 174

And satellite countries

Conditions in, 166-67, 180-81

Do not respect integrity of any government, 230

Training youth in communist procedure, 265

Appeasement of, 620

Atom-bomb propaganda, 112-13

Atom energy control, on, 121

Capitalism, attitude to, 137

Churchill, Winston, comments in regard to, 642

Expansion, 616-20

Exploiting nationalism in Asia, 260

Imperialism, 422, 641-42

A legacy of old Russian imperialism, 251

Characteristics and development, 90-91, 126-29, 633-34

Korea, program in, 137, 175

Menace of, 248, 599-600. See also under this title, Aggression

Military strength, 111-12, 138, 473, 634

As compared with western strength, 509

Propaganda at United Nations, 175

Submarines in world waters, 248

United Nations

Special military force, attitude toward, 116

Survey and inspection of armaments, 620

Spain

Agreement with suggested, 158

Defence line against communism, 224

Recognition of, 86-87, 200, 247

Speaker (Hon. W. Ross Macdonald)

Attendance at opening ceremonies of new House of Commons chamber in United Kingdom, 752

Speaker (Hon. W. Ross Macdonald)—Con.

Casgrain, the late Hon. Pierre F., 10

House of Commons

Division bells, placing in restaurant and cafeteria, 79-80

Meeting on January 29, notice of, published in Canada Gazette of January 6, and members notified by letter, 755

Rulings and statements

Amendments to motions allowed to stand this session although of questionable admissibility, 706-07

Bill

Second reading

Amendment, purpose of could have been accomplished by moving an appropriate amendment in committee, 706

Budget, subamendment, of questionable regularity . . . it does not purport to alter the amendment in any substantial particular, but in fact raises new matters foreign to amendment . . . Since there will be no other occasion on which the matter contained in the subamendment could be formally raised, (it will be allowed) to stand, 706-07

Business of the house, motion relating to may be accepted at this time with unanimous consent of the house, 108

Interruptions, 536

Irrelevancy, 739

Member/Members

Asked to remain quiet when any question is being put from the chair, 319

When drawing motions, especially amendments, (to) have more scrupulous regard to the rules governing their admissibility. This will minimize procedural debate and will greatly facilitate the orderly transaction of the business of the house, 707

Who do not hear what is being said from the chair should so indicate at the time, 319

Who proposes to ask question must ask question and not address the house, 225

Motions

Allowed a number to stand which under ordinary circumstances (would have been) ruled out of order, 706-07

Relating to business of the house allowed on routine proceedings, 195

Orders of the day, question on, not a proper question to be asked at this time, 110

Point of order, member should state it as briefly as possible, 710