

are here, the hockey game is probably over, so there is no reason why we could not continue sitting in the interest of examining some of the estimates further until eleven o'clock. I would ask the minister to consider that.

The Assistant Deputy Chairman: Order, please. The hon. member for Nepean-Carleton put the question as to whether there might be unanimous consent to continue. Is there consent?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

The Assistant Deputy Chairman: Clearly there is not unanimous consent.

It being 9.50 p.m. it is my duty, pursuant to an order made on Tuesday, April 29, 1980, to put forthwith every question necessary to dispose of the Committee of the Whole stage of the bill.

[Translation]

Mr. Olivier: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): The hon. member for Longueuil (Mr. Olivier) on a point of order.

Mr. Olivier: Mr. Speaker, excuse me for troubling you. I would like to inquire about the Standing Order. Is it customary to pass $20 billion when there are exactly 20 members opposite in the House? The opposition is away.

[English]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): When the hon. member rises on a point of order, I assume it is an appeal to the rules. I do not think the hon. member for Longueuil (Mr. Olivier) expects the Chair to rule on that as a point of order.

It being ten o'clock, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m. pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At 9.54 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
