

Government Orders

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I notice that the House leader for the New Democratic Party agrees with that. On a point of order, the Secretary of State.

Mr. Weiner: Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained and would have voted, of course, with the government on the last vote. I would like to be recorded as doing so on this vote.

[Translation]

Mr. Prud'homme: Mr. Speaker, I accept the hon. minister telling us what he would have done if he had been here, but I think that he wants to have his name and the names of all the others who were absent added for the second vote we are now taking and not for the first vote.

[English]

Mr. Darling: Like the minister, I also would have voted with the government on the previous vote, and would like to be recorded as doing so on this one.

• (1900)

Mr. Wilson (Swift Current—Maple Creek—Assiniboia): Mr. Speaker, I was absent for the first vote, but ask that my name be added to the government side for the second vote.

[Translation]

Mr. Cadieux: Mr. Speaker, to save time, I go along with what my colleague said.

[English]

The House divided on the motion which was agreed to on the following division:
