MONTREAL, October 24, 1933.

Sir Arthur Currie,
President and Vice-chancellor
McGill University,
Montreal.

My dear Sir Arthur:

Most heartily do I thank you for your kind letter of the 10th. I can assure you that I regard it as a great privilege to do anything that I can for you and for McGill, as I tried to express it in our conversation recently. I hope you will feel free to call upon me at any time that you think I could be of service to you. I am sure we both regard service as that which most dignifies life.

May I most heartily thank you for your very great kindness in officiating at the fete of the Anglican Emergency Relief last Friday? We do very much appreciate your kindness. You will be glad to know that they cleared over $1200.00, which gives them a good start for their winter's work.

With many thanks, I am,

Yours sincerely,

John Montreal
