

May 15th, the sculling match between Hanlan and Fred. A. Plaisted, of New York city, for $1,000 a side, was decided over a straight-away two-mile course on Toronto Bay, the former again achieving a hollow victory. No official time was taken, and the reports estimated it all the way from 13:14 to 15:12. On June 20th the race between Hanlan and Evan Morris, of Pittsburg, for the championship of America, five miles, was decided on the Alleghany River, and proved an easy victory for the former. Hanlan's next event was his second match with Wallace Ross, which, after repeated postponements, came off on the Kennebecasis course on July 31st last. At the first mile stake Ross fell overboard, and left the race a walk over for the Toronto champion. The race was for $1,000 a side, five miles with a turn. Two weeks after, on August 12th, Hanlan was first in the professional scull race, four miles, $1,000, of the Barrie Regatta Club, rowed on Kempenfeldt Bay, Wallace Ross taking second money, and George H. Hosmer, of Boston, third. The contestants who failed to get a place were Pat Luther, McKen, Elliot, Plaisted, Morris, and Coulter. His next contest was that at Lachine, in which he defeated Charles E. Courtney, the Union Springs sculler.
