

in Council disallow Provincial acts?

XXXIV. What is the Governor of a Province styled? How appointed? and how paid? What are his duties? and how advised? Of what does the various Executive Councils consist? and how appointed? What are their powers? Of what does the Ontario Legislature consist? and how is it styled? Of what does the Quebec Legislature consist? How is each house appointed or elected? For how long are the Parliaments of Quebec and Ontario chosen? and how often must they meet? How are the Legislatures of the other Provinces chosen? To whose review and reversal are all acts of Provincial Legislatures subject?

XXXV. Name some of the powers of the Federal Parliament. Name some of the powers of the local legislatures? How is education provided for? How immigration and agriculture? How are judges appointed? with what exception? and how are their salaries fixed?

XXXVI. How are the revenues of the different Provinces disposed of? and how is the consolidated revenue expended? How are the debts of the several Provinces provided for? and in what proportions? How are the Provincial Governments supported? and in what proportions? What additional grant is made per head? Does free trade exist between the Provinces? How are the Customs and Excise Laws regulated? In what languages are all acts of the Federal Legislature published? What railway scheme formed an essential part of the Union arrangement? What has been done in the matter? May other Provinces be received into the Dominion? What others have already applied? What vast territory is now on the point of being joined to the Dominion? How will the Dominion of Canada then compare with other great empires? With what Province have difficulties been experienced? Are they likely to be obviated? What is the probable future of the Dominion?

THE END.