

18, 19; monument at, mutilated by the British, 19; appearance of, 20; campaign, 27, 28.

Welland Canal, for what purpose undertaken, 170.

Williamsberg, town of, 135.

Wolfe, General, spot where he fell, 120; the stone commemorating his death, sunk by the selfishness of the proprietor of the land, 121; panegyric pronounced on by Burke, 121; memorial to in Quebec, 122.

Wolfe's Cove, 124.

York, the capital of Upper Canada, 145, 146.

THE END.

LONDON

PRINTED BY S. AND R. BENTLEY, DORSET STREET