

up Great Seal, deprived of all his possessions, 458; information filed against him, Ib.; pleads guilty, 459; proceeds to Esher, Ib.; letter from Erasmus, 460; returning kindness of the King, 461; impeachment agreed to by the Lords, but rejected by the Commons, 463; banished from Court, C. J., i. 166; his speech to Mr. Justice Shelley, 166-7; deserted by former friends, L. C., i. 463; settlement with the King, 464; permitted to remove to Richmond, 465; his installation as Archbishop, appointed, 466; alarm from his popularity, Ib.; arrested for treason, 467; behavior, Ib.; a prisoner, Ib.; at Sheffield Park, 468; alarmed at prophecy, Ib.; illness, Ib.; arrives at Leicester, Ib.; death, 469; C. J., i. 168; burial, L. C., i. 469; conduct as a Judge, 470; complaints of the lawyers, 472; natural children, Ib.; repentance, 473.

WOMEN—treatment of, when convicted of larceny, C. J., i. 191; rights and privileges of, iii. 107; important judgment supporting, L. C., v. 377; essay on, obscene publication, information against, vi. 443; presence of, necessary for comfort and cleanliness in household arrangements, iii. 188; when married, not allowed to sue as spinsters, C. J., iv. 52.

WOOD—Alderman, Queen Caroline's partisan, L. C., x. 287.

WOOD—An., Athenæ Oxon, extracts from, respecting the burial of Sir T. More's head, L. C., ii. 75; character of Lord Whitelock drawn by, iii. 381.

WOOD—Sir George, Baron of the Exchequer, trial and conviction before, at Lincoln Assizes, of an editor of a country newspaper for publishing a libel on the state of military discipline, C. J., iv. 212; L. C., x. 266.

WOOD—George, the eminent special pleader, L. C., viii. 21; pupils of, C. J., iv. 108, 276; anecdotes respecting, 108.

WOODFALL—proceedings against, L. C., vii. 293-4; C. J., iii. 378, 380, 388.

WOODSTOCK—Palace, residence of Henry VIII. at, L. C., ii. 27.

WOODWARD—Francis, reports by, of proceedings in the Star Chamber, L. C., ii. 347.