COLDWATER UNABLE TO SECURE PLAYERS

Parkdale Opens Senior O.H.A. Season on Friday Night at Kitchener.

The O. H. A. senior championship season will open on Friday night, when Parkdale Canoe Club will play at Kitchener. The club has agreed on Tom Munro of London as referee.

The Coldwater club, which applied for permission to take Meaford's place in Group No. 14, intermediate series, has been forced to drop out owing to the inability to secure players. This leaves Meaford, Collingwood, and Barrie in the group. Not having a rink at their own, Orillia will play at Midland and Collingwood at Barrie.

N. G. Schaefer is president of the Meaford O.H.A. intermediate club. Louis Toyle manager, W. J. Bundocho secretary, and M. H. Bundocho coach. They play their first game at home on Friday night against St. Mary's.

A winning despatch says: After one of the greatest finishes ever staged on local ice, and played before a packed house of 6000 hockey fans, the Selkirk team evened up the lead in the Manitoba Senior Hockey League race here Monday night, by defeating the Falcon team in overtime play by 5 to 4.

At Moose Jaw, Monday, in an overtime period, Moose Jaw defeated the Saskatoon hockey team, 3 to 2.

STRAFORD SCORED THIRTEEN. Galt, Dec. 30.—The Junior O. H. A. series in group eight opened here this evening with Stratford defeating the local 13 to 4 in a fast and hard-fought game in which superior speed and play and the weight of the visitors were deciding factors. Penalties were imposed by referee, W. E. Tackaberry. While their team was beaten, the local fans were not discouraged, and general opinion was that the team they had beaten Stratford will be champions. Line-up: Stratford (13)—Goal, Baechler; left defence, Sogbach; left defence, Lechew; centre, Moran; right wing, Carson; left wing, Ketterhorne; subs, Davello and Laird.

Referee—W. E. Tackaberry, Toronto.

KITCHENER READY. Kitchener, Ont., Dec. 30.—(Special).—Kitchener senior O.H.A. players have been going it hard getting into shape for the Parkdale engagement Friday night. The ex-champions report in good shape and promise some surprises for the Parkdale aggregation.
