"Whereas the Right Hon. R. L. Borsn, prime minister of Canada, speaking in the house of commons, on June 3, 1914, in reply to the speeches of several honorable members and particularly to the reported utterance of one of the honorable members in regard to collusion between the government and members of the senate in reference to 'killing' the bill in the upper house, said: 'His friends are in the majority, but so for as the government is conbut so far as the government is con-cerned, it stands by the bill as strongly in the senate as it does in the house of commons,' and
