THE BOSTON MARKET.

The situation in spruce lumber shows very little change. The settlement of the labor troubles in Boston has relieved the situation somewhat, as far as new arrivals are concerned, but the demand is very quiet. Prices hold steady: Ten and 12 in. dimensions, $21; 9 in. and under, $19; 10 and 12 in. random lengths, 10 feet and up, $20.50; 2x3, 2x4, 2x5, 2x6, 2x7 and 3x4, 10 feet and up, $17 to $17.50; all other randoms, 9 in. and under, 10 feet and up, $18 to $18.50; 5 in. and up, merchantable boards, $17; matched boards, $18.50 to $20; out spruce boards, $13 to $14; bundle furring, $17 to $18.

The market for hemlock lumber is quiet but steady: Boards, 12, 14 and 16 feet stock, $15 for good eastern; Pennsylvania, No. 1, $18.50 to $19.50; No. 2, $15 to $16.50.

Hard pine lumber is very quiet, though prices are very firmly held especially for large sizes. The southern mills will accept orders, but will not guarantee early delivery. The quotations are: Large building orders, to arrive, $28 to $32; for immediate delivery, from the yards, $30 to $35, according to schedule; floorings, from the yard, heart face, $26 to $32; best rift from the yard, $50 to $60, according to quality; stepping, $45 to $48; sap and seconds, $35 to $38; kiln dried, all rail, best quality, $40 to $44; sap, $29 to $33.

The arrivals of lumber by sea, for the week were two cargoes from the south, with 1,409,703 feet, and two cargoes from the provinces with 237,083 feet lumber.

There is a firm market for western pine lumber, though the demand is
