

of the liberties of the Germanic body ; his Britannic Majesty has resolved, in consequence of these considerations, to give an immediate succour, in money, to his Prussian Majesty, as the speediest and most effectual ; and their aforesaid Majesties have thought proper, that a convention should be made thereupon, in order to declare and ascertain their reciprocal intentions in this respect ; for which purpose they have appointed and authorized their respective ministers, viz. In the name and on the part of his Britannic Majesty, his privy counsellors, Sir Robert Henley, knight, lord keeper of the great seal of Great Britain, John earl of Granville, president of his council, Thomas Holles duke of Newcastle, first lord commissioner of his treasury, Robert earl of Holderneffe, one of his principal secretaries of state, Philip earl of Hardwicke, and William Pitt, esquire, another of his principal secretaries of state ; and in the name and on the part of his Prussian Majesty, the Sieurs Dodo Henry baron of Knyphausen, his privy counsellor of embassy and minister plenipotentiary at the court of his Britannic Majesty, and Lewis Michell, his chargé d'affaires at the said court ; who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, have agreed upon the following articles.

I.

His Majesty the king of Great Britain engages to cause to be paid, in the city of London, to the person
