

I N D E X.

E.

| Page |   | Page |
|------|---|------|
| 18   |   |      |
| 19   |   |      |
| 21   | East-India Company , Mr. Fox exclaims loudly against meddling with their territorial Revenue | 55   |
| 21   | Mr. Fox thinks they should have the Appointment of their own Servants                               | 79   |

F.

|    |  |        |
|----|--|--------|
| 30 | Fox , Mr. charged by Lord North with indiscriminate Censure   | 4      |
| 31 | his Contempt and Pity held by Lord North in equal Indifference   | 6      |
| 33 | alarms the House at the Views of Lord North  | 10     |
| 35 | menaces Lord North with a Day of Reckoning   | 11     |
| 38 | compares Lord North to Sir Robert Walpole for Corruption, and charges him with having lost Half the Empire by it | 11     |
| 40 | a severe Charge brought against him by Lord North  | 12     |
| 49 | accuses Lord North of Pusillanimity  | 12     |
| 3  | likens Lord North to Doctor Sangrado   | 13     |
| 60 | threatens Lord North with an Inquiry into the Capture of General Burgoyne  | 15     |
| 62 | ascribes to Lord North a singular Way of recovering America  | 15     |
| 66 | represents Lord North as suspected, detested, and despised by America  | 17     |
| 69 | pronounced Lord North the Contriver of our Misfortunes   | 19     |
| 74 | charged by Lord North with having gone very near speaking Treason  | 19     |
| 80 | ridicules Lord North   | 19, 26 |
|    | pronounces Lord North deserving Censure  | 20     |
|    | charges Lord North with being the last to learn what he should be the first to know                | 20     |
| I  | accuses Lord North of having betrayed the Nation   | 20     |
| 64 | declares he will never act with Lord North   | 22     |
| 68 | arraigns the Conduct of Lord North, respecting Admiral Keppel  | 23     |
| 68 | accuses Lord North of Avarice and Ambition   | 23     |
| 87 | charges Lord North with Partiality   | 24     |
|    | compares Lord North with the Minister of Xerxes  | 25     |
|    | pronounces the Views of Lord North to be dishonest and corrupt   | 27     |
|    | charges Lord North with an Act of public Perfidy   | 31     |
|    | accuses Lord North of contemning the People of England   | 31     |