

The first four lines have been lost. Those given by us have been merely inserted to make up the stanza.

A few stanzas of this work will be found in Gillies's collection, at page 138. The first stanza in that work is as follows:—

Thoir fios gu brebadair no beirte,
'Thuir rium gun do bhris mi 'aitrebh,
Gum faigh e paighedh air an fhaiche
Le tri chuairt de mhaide seidh.
Comh-thoirm laidir do 'n chu
'Thug a bhairlinn ud dhuinn;
Sud am paighedh 's math lium,
T'au 'bhi 'fagail na duthch'.

P. 176.—Delete Fonn.—“Cabair feidh.”

P. 194.—AIR FOGRAIDH NAN COCUPS. Cocups is evidently for cock-ups. Seminclet is in the MS. ceminclit. Tabi is from the English word tabby, a kind of rich, waved silk.
