

ST. KEVIN'S BAZAAR.

---

FIRST PRIZE—OR

£200

2ND PRIZE—VALUE

£100

3RD PRIZE—OR

£50

---

The united value of all the Prizes for distribution at this
Bazaar is over

£1,000

---

REV. DEAR SIR,

Having been appointed some few months ago, by His Eminence, to the charge of this poor parish, in which there is only a miserable wooden chapel, and finding it immensely in debt, I am obliged to have recourse to the most disagreeable and laborious of all works—a BAZAAR—to try and raise funds to complete the New Church of St. Kevin, commenced by my worthy predecessor, the Rev. Martin Barlow, and on which there is at present a debt of no less than Seven Thousand Pounds.

I venture to send you one 5s. Book of Tickets, which I ask you, for the love of God, to keep or pass among your friends; and to save you any unnecessary trouble, I shall be most happy to get back the Duplicates with a Post Office Order, or Stamps for the amount, which you will never miss, (especially when given for the love of God), but which, nevertheless, will be a great “God send” to me, in my present immense difficulties; so that we may each practically say in deed and in truth—“I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of Thy House, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth.”

Praying that the Lord in His infinite goodness may inspire you to assist me—even in the least degree—to raise up a Temple worthy of His honor and glory, and awaiting your answer with great anxiety and hope,

I remain, Rev. Dear Sir,

Your's most faithfully in Xt.,

T. MACCORMICK, P.P.

P.S.—Should you prefer it, you can make your remittance through His Eminence, or his Sec., Very Rev. MONSIGNOR MORAN, 59, Eccles-street, Dublin.

A Complimentary Ticket is here given with these few Tickets.

“He giveth twice, who gives quickly.”

Harrington-st., Dublin.

It may be well to state that I can get the P. O. Order, or Canadian Stamps, changed here by the Hibernian Bank at a small discount off.