

JOHN CATTO & SON AUTUMN COSTUME FABRICS

Are being daily received and placed in stock. Some weaves are distinctly new, while some former favorites as mentioned below, together with modifications and elaborations of the same, afford a most extensive range of choice:

Ladies' New Suits and New Coats

Are already an exhibition in representative quantities, so that any who are ready to buy now may feel quite certain of getting the latest styles. In fact, some of the present collection are already in the hands of the public, which points the advisability of seeing these at the earliest opportunity.

Ladies' Tailoring and Gowns (to Order)

This season we have improved facilities for the carrying on of Ladies' Tailoring and Gownmaking, which has featured such a success within in the past. Carefully trained assistants, with much experience in matters of design and construction, ensure the successful issue of the ideas of our designers.

Tourists and Visitors are directed particularly to the fine display in our East Window of the All-Wool Travelling Bags. These are shown in a vast assortment of the handsome Scottish and Family Tartan patterns, with back and front in nicely contrasting colors.

JOHN CATTO & SON

45-61 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.

STILL DISSATISFIED

Large Number of G. T. R. Strikers Are Refused Employment.

The settlement achieved by Judge Barron in the case of the Grand Trunk strikers does not seem to meet with very great approval in labor circles. Every morning since the settlement was made, a large number of strikers have been refused employment by the company, and an appeal for an investigation was made to the Dominion Government.

TORONTO TAXES FOR 1911.

Ratepayers are reminded that after Friday, August 26th, five per cent penalty will be added to all unpaid items of the first instalment of general taxes and local improvement rates for 1911.

Fell Two Storeys, Unhurt.

While standing a window in the second story of the biological building of the University of Toronto on College-street, at 10 o'clock, today, Thomas Parfett of 1484 Yonge-street, fell from the top of the building. However, he was taken to Grace Hospital in the police ambulance, where his opinion as to his hurt was confirmed.

When you pay house accounts with cheques you save a lot of book-keeping.

The bank book is a record of the payment and the cancelled cheques are the only receipts necessary. The bank account alone is a concise statement of the month's expenditure.

Open a checking account.

ERNEST DRURY of 208 Argyle-street, a lad of 13 years, while riding a bicycle along Queen-street near Triller-avenue last night, was knocked down and over by a team of horses belonging to the Union Dairy Co. and driven by Arthur Haycock of 28 Balmuto-street. He was badly crushed about the upper part of his body. He was taken to his home in the police ambulance.

Praston the Candidate.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 21.—T. H. Praston, editor of The Brantford Expositor, is the choice of the Liberals of Brantford for the federal seat.

THE TRADERS BANK OF CANADA

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $5,650,000.

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, Aug. 21. (8 p.m.) The weather has become clear throughout the western provinces, and the temperature promises to rise. The weather is also fine elsewhere in Canada, except in the Lake Superior region, where it is raining.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Prince Rupert, 45-70; Vancouver, 48-74; Victoria, 48-62; Kamloops, 50-70; Edmonton, 44-64; Calgary, 40-60; Swift Current, 42-58; Winnipeg, 48-62; Port Arthur, 70-78; Parry Sound, 50-60; Toronto, 50-78; Ottawa, 50-78; Montreal, 55-78; Quebec, 48-76; St. John, 55-78.

Probabilities:—Winds: Increasing to strong, breezes or moderate local gales, southerly, gradually shifting to westerly and northwesterly; heavy frost and rain, with showers and thunderstorms; cooler on Wednesday.

Ottawa and St. Lawrence: Mostly fair and warm, with some local showers or drizzle, chiefly at night. Gulf-Fresh to strong westerly to southerly winds; fair and warm on Wednesday.

Maritime: Moderate to fresh westerly to southerly winds; fine and warm. Superior-Strong winds and moderate rains. Atlantic: Fresh to strong showery first, then clearing and cold. Manitoba-Fine and comparatively cool. Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fine and a little higher temperature.

THE BAROMETR.

Table with 4 columns: Time, Bar., Wind, and other weather indicators.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

Table with 3 columns: Ship Name, From, and Arrival Date.

TODAY IN TORONTO.

August 21. Royal Alexandra-Lyman Howe Corporation Pictures. Majestic-Vaudeville. Gayety-Burlesque.

BIRTHS.

CAMERON on Monday, Aug. 20, at 44 West Beaver-street, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Cameron, a son.

DEATHS.

ARNOLD on Monday, Aug. 21, 1911, at his home, 1036 Bathurst-st., Toronto, of H. E. Arnold, in his 65th year.

BATES BURIAL CO.

124 AVENUE ROAD. J. W. BATES. Late of Bates & Dods. Phone Calls 3022.

HORSES NOT CONTROLLED.

Verdict in Inquest on Death of Vitea Velletta.

"We, the jury, find that Vitea Velletta came to his death in St. Michael's Hospital on the 21st day of August, 1911, as a result of crushing injuries sustained from a lorry driven by George F. Bycroft, who we find was unable to control the horses."

BORDEN'S EASTERN TOUR

Conservative Leader Speaks in Montreal on August 20.

OTTAWA, Aug. 21.—(Special).—R. L. Borden closes his Ontario tour in Brockville a week from to-day. His itinerary for the eastern provinces was announced to-day. Beginning with a meeting in Montreal on Tuesday, Aug. 29, from Montreal the Conservative leader goes down to the eastern townships, holding two and three meetings a day, Wednesday, the 30th, he speaks at Farnham, Granby and Waterloo, Thursday at Richmond and Sherbrooke, Friday at Cookshire and Lake Megantic.

Having a Vacation.

The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board are on a vacation these days. The board will not meet again until Sept. 1.

Cotton Tariff Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The cotton tariff revision bill was passed by the house late to-day. The bill was introduced by a party of the House and Speaker Clark and sent to President Taft, who will veto it.

Married in Toronto.

KINGSTON, Aug. 21.—(Special).—Two young ladies, Misses Mary E. and Elizabeth Fleming and Althea Turcott, were quietly married on Sunday in St. Michael's College chapel in Toronto and so to the west to reside.

Use Gibbons' Toothpaste.

The Conservative convention for West Toronto will be held to-night in the Excelsior Rink, College-street.

AN OVERFLOWING MARKET

DO NOT AN OPEN ONE

Continued From Page 1.

state that there would be no interference with the tariff so far as manufacturers were concerned. Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Mr. Borden's reception was more than candid. Two huge bouquets of flowers were presented, the crowd hailed him with loud applause, and he advanced towards the front of the platform. An apt quotation from the German poet Schiller, describing a nobleman's reception of a foreigner, was made by Mr. Borden with an analogy to political life, which put the audience in a pleasant mood.

Ideal Crop Weather

The Union Trust Company has received the following crop report by wire from their Winnipeg branch:

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

The past week has been ideal crop weather. The crops are a little late, but maturing very fast. No general injury from any cause. Slight injury from hail in a few spots. The Moose Jaw district has the best crops in its history, and they have made good progress during the past ten days. Harvesting is reported as far west as Moose Jaw, and cutting will be general from about Aug. 28 to Sept. 1. The reported damage by rust is now generally denied. There has been a little frost in widely separated parts, but no general frost to do any damage. All conditions most favorable.

SIR WILFRID SPEAKS TO QUEBEC FARMERS

Made the Usual Appeal About Higher Prices in the Larger Market

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J. P. Magann seconded it, and the crowd "hollered" for the close of the nominations. This was done immediately after the speech-making commenced, followed by lots of assurances and predictions that J. J. Ward would be the next representative from South Toronto in the federal parliament.

Four hundred enthusiasts gathered at the Labor Temple last night and nominated Controller J. J. Ward as the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the coming Dominion elections. J. E. Atkinson of The Star moved the nomination, J