

Secret's Clothes

Made to Your Measure.

An Extraordinary Purchase of Genuine Irish Blue Serges

These goods are so scarce—so hard to buy to-day at any price, that this exceptional purchase and fortunate shipment of these genuine, guaranteed indigo dye Irish Blue Serges may well have an extra attraction—Men of the world who demand quality will be quick to appreciate the value.

To-day's Leaders
Regular $40.00 Irish Blue Serge Suits, $34.00
dye guaranteed
Regular $44.00 Irish Blue Serge Suits, $38.00
dye guaranteed

And only one suit to a customer.

R. Score & Son, Limited

Tailors and Haberdashers.
77 King Street West

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

West Toronto

DEATH OF MRS. RISK.

Well-Known Scotch Woman Succumbs to Heart Trouble.

The death occurred on Sunday night of Mrs. Marion Risk at her home, 60 Gothic avenue, eight years of age. Mrs. Risk had until last Thursday enjoyed fairly good health, except for rheumatism, which prevented her going about to any extent. She was seized with heart trouble and lived only three days. Mrs. Risk was a Scotch woman and came to Canada seven years ago, her husband having died three years previously. She was a member of Old St. Andrew's Church, and since the war had knitted almost constantly for the soldiers.

Five children survive her: James, Charles and Nellie at home, Mrs. Fleming Morrison, Mrs. Dunbar, Orla, and Mrs. J. K. Thomson of Kilmaurs, Scotland.

MAPLE LEAF LODGE.

Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 161, L.S. of B. of L. 2 and E. held a progressive supper last night at St. James' Hall, West Toronto, to augment the funds. Refreshments were served.

DIES, AGED 85.

Miss Jessie Penman succumbed to Attack of Pneumonia.

Miss Jessie Penman died Sunday night, aged 85 years. Miss Penman had made her home with her niece, Mrs. Harriet Hamman, at 171 Pacific avenue, for the past fourteen years, and until ten weeks ago had been fairly active since that time she had been confined to her bed with pneumonia.

Miss Penman was born near Montreal and had lived in Hamilton before coming to Toronto. A short funeral service was held last night, and the remains taken to Hamilton this morning for interment.

Miss Penman's nearest relatives are three nieces in Detroit and two in Toronto, the other, besides Mrs. Hamman, being Mrs. T. A. Carbine. Miss Penman was a Presbyterian.

OIL STOVE EXPLODES.

The reels from Keele street fire station were called to 77 Vine avenue last night. A coal oil stove had exploded, but very little damage was done.

Glen Grove

GLENGROVE SCHOOL TO GROW VEGETABLES

The Home and School Association of the proposed new Glen Grove School is taking a practical interest in the subject of vegetable growing, and plans are under way for an up-to-date school garden. A lot adjacent to the present school on Alexandra boulevard, 50 by 200 feet, has been secured. The children have contributed funds for the purchase of seed. Ten captains have been appointed, and work will begin this week. Altogether the outlook is most cheering for a well conducted and profitable garden plot. The president, Mrs. Louisa, is taking a practical interest in seeing that the plans are properly carried out.

Riverdale

AUTO IS CRUSHED BETWEEN TWO CARS

Harry McDowell, 311 Clinton street, had a very narrow escape from instant death about 6 o'clock last evening when his motor car was caught between two street cars, a Carlton and a Broadview, going in opposite directions at the crossing on Broadview at Hogarth avenue. McDowell escaped with slight face bruises, but the car was crushed. The car was practically smashed to matchwood, together with a basket of eggs and a box of fruit. According to McDowell's statement he was driving down the slope at an easy pace when a long double line of cars was coming across Broadview avenue. He was smashed into broadside by a Carlton car and a Broadview car and the automobile squeezed between the devil strip. He scrambled out from the wrecked machine thru the door of one of the street cars after the collision.

SEEKS INCORPORATION.

The North Riverdale Horticultural Association is endeavoring thru its committee and the assistance of Jos. Russell, M.L.A., to incorporate under the act as a horticultural society. The organization, which has a membership of 65, has been active over a year and held a very successful show last season. This year's show will be thrown open to the public and competitions for the best fruit and vegetables will be held. James Law is president and J. J. Smith vice-president.

Danforth

FRANKLAND SCHOOL HAS BIG GARDEN

The greater food production campaign is being taken up with enthusiasm by the pupils of Frankland School, Logan avenue, East Toronto, who are exceptionally favored in having as supervisors and instructors three teachers with Guelph Agricultural College diplomas, namely, Miss V. Armstrong, Miss J. Thrush and Miss Margaret McDonald, according to the statement of J. A. Hill, principal. A tract of land adjoining the school about one acre in extent, which has been lent for the purpose of food production by Playter brothers, is divided into three sections, one for each teacher. The direction of a teacher, and the whole is worked by about 135 pupils as a unit, with all kinds of vegetables. "For the past two or three years the children of the senior third class have received a theoretical training in agriculture and now they are having the practical side," said Mr. Hill, who pointed out that an order for $10 worth of seeds had been sent out and a further $14.50 had been received, some of which would be given to the pupils for planting in their home gardens. An exhibition of vegetables will be held at the close of the season.

INJURED BY FALL DURING TRAINING

Pte. Arthur Murphy, C. E. F., 27 Chester avenue, East Toronto, who was injured by a fall from his home while in training in England, was in the hospital and now they are having the practical side," said Mr. Hill, who pointed out that an order for $10 worth of seeds had been sent out and a further $14.50 had been received, some of which would be given to the pupils for planting in their home gardens. An exhibition of vegetables will be held at the close of the season.

WANTS LAVATORY IN DANFORTH DISTRICT

"Lavatory accommodation is the most urgent necessity in the Danforth section at the present time," said A. Hanna, president of the Danforth Ratepayers' Association, yesterday. "I am surprised that Dr. Hastings and the medical health board have not taken up this matter long ago; and now that the Bloor street viaduct is about to be opened for traffic the need will become much greater. Why did the city authorities allow the needs of motorists to be considered first in allowing a gasoline station to be erected near Danforth avenue, when lavatory accommodation is both necessary and vital to the health of the city? Danforth and Broadview corner is an ideal section for such a convenience," said Mr. Hanna, who declared that the matter would be thrashed out at the next meeting of the Danforth Ratepayers' Association.

WOUNDED MAN BACK.

His Family Has Suffered Much in Present War.

Pte. Fred Holm, C. E. F., 907 Logan avenue, Danforth, who lost a limb and received other wounds at the battle of Passchendaele, returned to his home yesterday. Pte. Holm enlisted with the 12th Battalion and was overseas one year and eight months. He was invalided to St. Thomas' Hospital, London, and was afterwards treated at other English hospitals. While in London he witnessed two German air raids. His mother, who was in England with relatives, visited him in the hospital and left for Canada a few months ahead in order to receive him on arrival. Another brother, Hector, who lives in Halifax and is a member of the naval service, had his wife and three children injured in the recent disaster. Mrs. Holm received over 50 wounds on the face and body.

PREPARING GROUNDS.

The Withrow Park Grounds Association is preparing the grounds in Withrow park, being leveled and the pitch marked by the parks department officials, as a result of a visit to Comstock, Ontario, by a deputation of the organization recently. Richard Sales is president.

STREET CARS DELAYED.

Owing to a broken trolley wire at the corner of Danforth and Broadview at the rush hour last evening, much inconvenience was caused to hundreds of commuters as they waited for their street cars, a long double line of cars being held up for some time on Broadview avenue.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Excavation work for the new four-room solid brick school in connection with St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, corner of Danforth and Hampton avenues, was started yesterday. The building is intended to accommodate 100 persons. Rev. F. E. Powell is rector of the parish.

Earlscourt

SGT. BUTTERS TO SPEAK OF HIS EXPERIENCES

Sgt. R. S. Butters, 4th C. M. R., will give an address in St. David's Presbyterian Church, Earlscourt, on Friday night under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood. Sgt. Butters went overseas in 1915 and returned five weeks ago. He was wounded at Passchendaele, shot thru the arm and leg from a five-point-nine shell, the biggest shell that the Germans are using in the present offensive. He was buried in "No Man's Land" for eleven minutes. In a statement to a reporter for The World, Sgt. Butters said he and the former Sgt. W. L. Capt. Bailey's public statement that Canadians were seen drunk in France, it was an outrageous insult against our brave soldiers. "The Canadian officers and men are winning this war as much as the soldiers," says Butters, "and the morale of the men is splendid." For capturing two Hun n.c.o.'s in "No Man's Land" the sergeant was given a rest in "Bright" for twelve days. Sgt. Butters expects to be gassed a lieutenant in a few days, and is anxious to return to the front.

EARLSCOURT FIREMEN WILL GROW POTATOES

To keep in line with all patriotic efforts the members of the Earlscourt fire station are to grow potatoes on a large plot of land adjoining the fire station. The plot has been placed at the disposal of the men and now they are having the practical side," said Mr. Hill, who pointed out that an order for $10 worth of seeds had been sent out and a further $14.50 had been received, some of which would be given to the pupils for planting in their home gardens. An exhibition of vegetables will be held at the close of the season.

TRINKET SUNDAY IN EARLSCOURT.

To provide comforts for Earlscourt soldier boys at the front St. David's Presbyterian Church members contribute trinkets on Sunday and Monday for that purpose and a large number responded. Packages of goods to be sent overseas from the front, Rev. C. W. Mustard is the minister.

EARLSCOURT BOY INJURED.

Leslie Chester of Rochdale avenue was severely injured about the legs on Monday afternoon when he became entangled in the wheels of a passing motor car which he was clinging. He was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

TO HOLD EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Rev. J. Thomas Sharman, who is conducting Sunday school services at the Royal George Theatre, is soon to engage in evangelistic work. Mr. Sharman has been holding services at Oddfellows' Hall, Bloor street.

North Toronto

WORK IS PROGRESSING ON FINE NEW BUILDING

Work is progressing favorably on the new Salvation Army hall on Eglinton avenue, and when completed the new building will be up-to-date and commodious. The main floor will have seating capacity for 300 and will be equipped with rolling partitions which will divide it into three large Sunday school classes, and provide floor space for 150 people in addition. The basement will be used for band rooms, scout hall, kitchen, furnace rooms and lavatory. The building of this hall at a cost of $8000 is evidence of the progressive work carried on under Capt. Cooke. The Salvation Army band has recently been equipped with new uniforms, and progress is being made under the leadership of Ensign Sparks. The new hall will be opened in the latter part of June, pending the arrival of the new band. Work will be held early in the month to raise funds for the building.

MRS. G. H. LAWRENCE DEAD.

The wife of G. H. Lawrence died yesterday after a short illness at the family residence, 419 Balfour street, North Toronto. The late Mrs. Lawrence, with her family, had lived in Danforth for over 20 years, coming to Canada with her husband from England in 1881. Mrs. Lawrence is survived by her husband, five sons, Harry in the customs department in British Columbia; James E. Leonard and William in Winnipeg; and John overseas. The funeral will be held on Friday, pending the arrival of the sons, and will take place at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Mrs. Lawrence was a member of the Anglican Church, and greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends for her generosity and thoughtfulness for others.

WAR SUMMARY

The Day's Events Reviewed

Von Ludendorff, with a grand display of fireworks and with large forces, attacked the allies about Ypres yesterday, but instead of breaking thru their front as intended, he suffered at every point a severe and costly defeat. The Germans this time tackled a wide front, and that three British divisions, the 21st, 25th and 49th, held the remainder of the front, or the allied left and right wings. The three British divisions, partly holding the line and partly attacking the flanks, did not give a foot of ground before the enemy onslaught. The French gave way temporarily, but, as they threw the Germans out of their positions. The Belgians also in sharp fighting repulsed the enemy.

The fighting yesterday was no reconnaissance of the enemy in force or for local objectives. The enemy aimed at penetrating the British and French fronts and reaching the Mont. Cat. Mountain, and so at capturing the mountain chain on which the present British defence is based, and also at turning the British out of the Ypres salient and capturing the town. It requires no large feat of imagination to perceive that he employed troops in numbers deemed enough in his calculations for achieving his object, and his utter failure represents a corresponding loss of strength for future action. The allies on this line are occupying concentric positions, and a bare strip of ground, making unmissable targets for the hidden allied forces. The enemy advanced since the capture of the salient, it is to be noticed, has been negligible.

It is now known that the enemy staff had prepared a battle plan for the march to the coast, but the many severe defeats sustained—with nothing to show for several heavy actions but the capture of Mount Kemmel, which has proved a barren gain as its sequel proved yesterday—have ruined his calculations. The British, moreover, have defense upon defense, and the enemy, if they could give up Ypres, the world is assured, without yielding the enemy any strategic advantage and without having to make any noticeable retirement. It would be surprising, in fact, if the channel ports were veritable Torres edras. They present most of the requisite conditions for this type of fortification.

The battle, however, is not won until it is over. The allies have still to stand firm, and until they can my wears himself out, and to recruit the armies up to their requirements in order to maintain an impenetrable front. The next six weeks will probably see the worst of the ordeal and careful watching is required to see that the enemy finds no weak spot anywhere, for he may choose at the last moment to make a dash for the coast, and then the allies will be in a very awkward position. The allies are turning the battle in the northwest into a fight of them all and are preparing to take turns in the consolidation of their power in the country. It is evidently the rapid rotation of the allied divisions in the trenches, so that they will be fit for taking part in his coming counter-attack.

In Russia affairs are plainly inclining towards a renewal of the war. The German and Russian armies have fired on Russian warships and other vessels, while leaving harbor, contrary to the peace, making the consolidation of their power in the country. It is evidently the rapid rotation of the allied divisions in the trenches, so that they will be fit for taking part in his coming counter-attack.

The German prisoners of war, as well as the Austrians, are showing reluctance to return home to become cannon fodder for their lords and Germany has issued an ultimatum to the allies, threatening that if these men are not sent back, she will advance in northern Russia and capture Petrograd. The new government at the former Russian capital, has repudiated the peace and demands a Russian Estonia. Its speedy action in this regard before the consolidation of its power in the country. It is evidently the rapid rotation of the allied divisions in the trenches, so that they will be fit for taking part in his coming counter-attack.

New Toronto

COUNTY POLICE COURT.

Charged with stealing from the C.P.R., an employee, William Giles, was yesterday remanded till Saturday in the county court. $1000 was granted. Giles was charged with assaulting his father-in-law, and bound over in the sum of $500 to behave himself for 12 months. William Entwistle, New Toronto, was remanded till Thursday on the charge of keeping a disorderly house.

PATRIOTIC WORK.

Frankland School Pupils Are Making Supplies for Wounded Soldiers.

Frankland School, Logan avenue, with 28 of its 30 rooms at present occupied with a roll of 1000 pupils, has a corps of four platoons, numbering 100 members. Patriotic work is carried on every day. The pupils are making supplies for wounded soldiers. J. A. Hill is the principal.

AT RED CROSS MEETING.

Mrs. John Finckel and Mrs. F. Dunbar represented the North Toronto Patriotic and Red Cross Society at the annual conference of the parent society, held yesterday. Mrs. Finckel presented the College Heights and Rosedale Society.

MRS. J. F. HALLIDAY.

Jeannie Fletcher Halliday, wife of Jas. Irving Halliday, died at her home, 326 Crawford street, yesterday, in her 60th year. Mrs. Halliday was a well-known and recently a resident of West Toronto.

Some Sidelights on Y.M.C.A. War Work

'The "Walking Wounded"—A Village Without a Y.M.C.A. Can the Need Be Measured?

"I think of the Y.M.C.A. emergency work when a great push is on," writes Francis B. Sayre in "Harper's," and the wounded soldiers are streaming back from the front literally by the thousands, maimed, and torn and bleeding. The numbers are so vast that the stretcher-bearers can only attend to the prostrate wounded.

"All those who can manage to walk or crawl, known as the 'walking wounded,' must make their own way as best they can to the first aid stations. By the side of these first aid stations the Y.M.C.A. takes its place; and all the walking wounded who come in are given hot coffee and made as comfortable as possible while they wait, sometimes for hours."

Can the Need be Measured?

Referring to the Y.M.C.A. huts, the writer says: "I have seen the halls so crowded on the occasion of some religious talk that after the benches were all filled and the standing room taken, soldiers kept crowding in through the windows to sit on the floor of the platform, and others remained outside to listen to the speaker through the windows."

A Village Without Y.M.C.A.

Here is the writer's picture of a French village without a Y.M.C.A.: "With only evil ways in which to spend money burning in their pockets, with nothing to relieve the dull monotony of idle evenings, many of them began to get lonely and homesick, or to drift along dangerous paths."

"It was not many days before officers began to send hurry calls for the Y.M.C.A.: 'For God's sake come down before it's too late and do something for my men.'"

Death of a Y.M.C.A. Secretary

"One shell, dropping not ten feet from the dug-out, churned up the earth, the next went crashing through the steel sheeting. A party left the battery to search for the Non-Combatant (Y.M.C.A. secretary). Clambering through the shell-hole, they saw the fruit cans gashed as if by a hundred chisels; the stocks scattered and destroyed; the mugs broken; the cocoa-urn over-turned; and when they had thrown the debris aside they found the Non-Combatant (Y.M.C.A. secretary), with a dark red stream oozing from his head, still smiling, but sleeping his last sleep."

The exhibition of pictures which has been conducted by the Daughters of the Empire at the Roberts' art gallery for several weeks, closes on Wednesday. The pictures are being sent to Montreal and thence to Ottawa.

ENGINEERS WANT MEN.

In a new call just issued for recruits, Inland Waterways and Docks, R.E. Imperial Services, points out that all men between the ages of 34 and 36 who are physically fit to carry on their trade, regardless of medical category, under the Military Service Act, and married men between the ages of 19 and 36, are eligible for enlistment in that corps. Also that any qualified single man between 20 and 34 years in lower medical category than A5, may be transferred out of the corps by their commanding officers. The unit's recruiting office is at 67 Victoria street.

HAND IS INJURED.

While repairing the gear of a motor car yesterday, Edward Ducham, 144 Grace street, had his hand badly crushed when it was caught in the teeth of the gears. He was taken to the Western Hospital, where it is thought it will be necessary to amputate the hand.

FALLS FROM LADDER.

When she fell from a ladder while doing some work in her home yesterday evening, Mrs. Mary Fin, 60 Albany avenue, fractured her left wrist. She was taken to the Western Hospital, and was later removed to her home.

HAMILTON NEWS

ROY CAREY KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Hamilton Motor Crashes Into Radial Car, Causing Casualties.

Hamilton, April 29.—Another motor car fatality occurred here tonight when Roy Carey, the well-known auctioneer, received injuries which resulted in his death in the City Hospital a few hours later, when his motor car, which was being driven by his wife, crashed with terrific force into a Dunsville radial car on Herkimer street. Mrs. Carey was also injured, but at the hospital it was stated she will recover. The motor car was proceeding east on Herkimer street behind a street car and Mrs. Carey swung rapidly behind it to so north on Bay street. She failed to notice the approaching radial car, with the result that both met head on. The force of the collision was so great that the ends of the motor car were practically jackknifed together, and the car added about 90 feet off the side of the radial, which was in charge of Frank McGahey, motorman, and H. A. McDougall, conductor. Both the occupants were thrown from the car when it turned over following the skid.

FARMERS DISCUSS CONSCRIPTION ACT

W. F. Maclean Explains Attitude of Government on Matter.

One of the largest meetings ever held in Downview was that of last night when the school room of the last Methodist Church was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was thoroughly representative and consisted of a large number of farmers and some of the local politicians. The meeting was held in the school room of the last Methodist Church, which was filled to the doors by representatives of farmers from all over the Township of Etobicoke, Vaughan and York, anxious to learn all about the government proposals relative to the conscription of the young men of the ages of 20 to 25 years. The meeting was