

KITCHENER FINDS DEWEY

Boers Recently Collected Under His Leadership in Northern Orange
River Colony.

83 OF ENEMY KILLED IN A WEEK.

Report From Berlin That British
Remnants for Cavalry Were Captured.

London, Nov. 12.—Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch from Pretoria, dated Monday, Nov. 11, presents his weekly report, and incidentally locates Gen. Dewey in the north-western part of the Orange River Colony. He says the Boers have recently been collecting under his leadership, and that the British are now moving to disperse them.

MURDERED A CANADIAN.

Scale Reading From "Crest" and
"KINATE PO."

St. John, N.B., Nov. 12.—A jury this afternoon found Alexander Theriault, a woodsman, guilty of murder in the first degree, in causing the death of Mathias Pare, a young Canadian logger. The penalty is life imprisonment. Pare's body was found in a trail in the woods after the snow, under which it had been buried, melted. Theriault was convicted on circumstantial evidence. He had always been a steady, hard working woodsman. He lived in the woods with his family.

Many Shipping Disasters in the Channel, Attended by Great Loss of Life.

Paris, England and Ireland Flooded—Gales for Thirty-Six Hours.

LIGHTSHIP SUNK IN THE CHANNEL.

Paris, England and Ireland Flooded—Gales for Thirty-Six Hours.

London, Nov. 12.—Violent wind, rain and snowstorms are reported from all coasts of the United Kingdom. A fierce gale is blowing in the channel, and mountainous seas are running. No fewer than half a dozen small vessels within sight of Dover are flying signals of distress, and the lifeboats are vainly attempting to reach them. A rocket apparatus has been sent to the South Foreland, where an Admiralty vessel is on the rocks, with the crew clinging to the rigging. Several vessels have been damaged and tugs are rescuing craft which were driving ashore. At other channel ports, there have been similar exciting scenes. Ships everywhere are running for shelter.

NO GENEROUS TREATMENT.

New York Journal Warns Canadians to Be Unbiased.

New York, Nov. 12.—The Journal, commenting editorially on Hon. David Milroy's article in the Empire Review protesting against the American demand for control over the Nicaragua Canal, suggests that if Canada wants perfect equality respecting the canal, she must have $100,000,000 handy to pay one-half of its cost. Concluding the Journal says:

"If anybody in England or Canada is counting on generous treatment in exchange for concessions in Nicaragua it is better for him to be informed now than later. But as to the other matters, if that means better tariff arrangements, there ought to be generosity, not only for Canada's sake, but for our own."

WANT TO DROP THE SWORD.

Army Officers Held There Is No Longer Any Use for It.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Army officers are planning to discard the sword. It is recognized as an impediment to both mounted and unmounted officers. It is held that the days of hand-to-hand conflicts have passed away, and with them the usefulness of the sword as a weapon. Sentiment and custom may weigh against it, but the proposed elimination of the sword is expected to be accomplished in the near future, because it proved there to be such an impediment.

GROUNDING OF INDEFATIGABLE.

Decision of Commissioner Is That She Was Out of Her Course.

Montreal, Nov. 12.—Flames broke out shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon on the Dominion Tobacco Co.'s factory, owned by A. & E. Goldstein, on Papineau-street. The fire, which started in the bottom of the house, spread with force rapidly, and the space of five minutes after the flames broke out the twenty odd employees working in the upper parts of the building were thrown into a panic. Yet they all escaped. The damage to stock is $15,000, and to the building $2000. The following companies are interested: Lancaster, $5000; Western, $4800; Phoenix and Brooklyn, $4800; North America, $4800; National, $4800.

EMPLOYEES ALL ESCAPED.

GAMBLING ENQUIRY OPENS.

Editor of Paper Making Charges Must Testify Under Oath or Go to Jail.

SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION IS WIDE.

The powers of the Toronto Board of Police Commissioners were demonstrated yesterday afternoon in dealing with the charges made by an evening newspaper to the effect that the police were standing in with gamblers. The editor of the paper in question was called to give evidence, and he informed the board that he had no personal knowledge of the charges made in the articles, whereupon he was asked to give the source of his information. The name of the reporter was mentioned, and the editor was proceeding to make some statements explaining the connection with the article, when Magistrate Denison pointed out that he would have to be sworn.

CHARGES SHOULD BE PROVEN.

Magistrate Denison, in taking this stand, said that if a wrong was to be righted the Journal in question did a public service, and no newspaper writer had any right to make charges that could not be backed up by evidence.

EDITOR PLEADED THAT PART OF A NEWS-PAPER'S CAPITAL WAS THE CONFIDENCE IMPOSED IN HIS WRITINGS.

The editor pleaded that part of a newspaper's capital was the confidence imposed in his writings, and that the magistrate had that confidence, and that the magistrate should not be blamed for giving evidence if the law compelled him to do so. Evenators and ministers who had received information in confidence could not claim privilege, the only person who is entitled to such a privilege is the editor. The editor was not forced to take the stand yesterday, but will be compelled to do so tomorrow, in accordance with the order of the court, and when he has been given an opportunity to consult his solicitor.
