Findmin, and the grown by his brother, Mr. H. G. Hicks. Fire on Adelaide-Street . What might have been a serious com- fugation was averted by the usual prompt action of the Bay-street brigade, who re- celved a still call to 99 West Adelaide- street.occupied by the Dorrien Plating and Manufacturing Company. A large tar- hied tank caught fire, and sent out volumes of smoke, which, on the outside, looked very serious. Fifty dollars will cover the loss. It is Only a Rumor . It is rumored that the Council of 1902 will be approached by the Street Rallway co, with a view to the franchise being ex- tended twenty years, on the conditions gov- erning the present one. A three-cent fares is said to be the boilt, but there doesn't seen to be much in the rumor. The Mayoe stid he had not heard anything about it.
