

Special Price Sale

Important Event in Fine Dry Goods.

In a few days we commence operations to effect important changes in the front and display window of our store, which, with the continued building, obstructions of the King Edward Hotel, adjoining, has compelled an urgent disposal of surplus stock.

Prompt purchasers will be afforded unprecedented chances within the next few weeks, the following of fine dry goods on sale today:

Singular Values in Dress Fabrics.
Inspect the special dress fabric offer in colored tulle, covers, Venetians, home-spuns, chevrons, shirtings, emblems, etc., from $1.00 to $1.50 at 50 cents a yard.

In black dress fabrics, a grand fifty-cent offer embraces serge, chevrons, shirtings, twills, broads, plain and figured textures, crepons, etc., also an offering of black, green, and blue, regular 20c, 25c and 30c, for twelve and a half cents.

With these we will also clear out some fine silk, at 50c, regular 75c to $1.00; remnants of fancy colored silks at great reductions.

Splendid Offers in Mantle Dep't.
Cloth, homespun and Tweed Costumes at $5 each. These will describe themselves when seen. The same with reference to the Mantle and Coat Department.

Hon. R. M. Wells' Funeral.

The funeral of the late Hon. Rupert M. Wells will take place this morning.

Service will be held at his late residence, Prince Arthur-avenue, at 8 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to the Union Station, thence to the Vankleek Hill by the C. P. R., the funeral to take place there upon the arrival of the Montreal train at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday. The C. P. R. has arranged a Pullman car at the disposal of the family and relatives. J. Douglas, brother of the deceased, and the United States Life Insurance Company of Toronto, arrived in the city yesterday, and will accompany the remains to the place of burial.

Ministerial Meetings.
At the meeting of the Baptist Ministerial Association yesterday morning, Rev. C. H. Schaff of the Century Baptist Church read a paper on "The Psychology of Spiritual Life." Rev. C. H. Schaff of the Century Baptist Church read a paper on "The Psychology of Spiritual Life." Rev. C. H. Schaff of the Century Baptist Church read a paper on "The Psychology of Spiritual Life."

Rev. Dr. Caven read a paper on "Socialism in the New Testament" before the meeting of the Presbyterian ministers. Rev. Dr. Milligan and Rev. Dr. Wallace were appointed a committee to draft a letter of sympathy to the relatives of the late Rev. Principal Grant.

THE BEST TEST
It's equally good for baby and grandmother. It never fails to kill every pain. Large bottles 25c and 50c, all dealers.

A Paragon
The Diamond illustrated above is an absolutely perfect stone. It sells for $1,000.

Of inferior quality a diamond of the same size would cost but a small fraction of that amount.

We "know" Diamonds, and we sell them for what we know them to be.
