Ontario License Holders.

Large Deputation Interview Provincial Cabinet.

Mr. Haverson Acts as Spokesman - The Premier's Reply.

Toronto, Dec. 18 .- A large and influential deputation from the Ontario License Holders' Protective Association waited upon the Provincial Cabinet yesterday afternoon to urge a number of amendments to the Ontario license laws, which they claim should be enacted. Mr. James Haverson, Toronto, acted as spokesman for the license holders. The Premier, in replying to the detheir wishes. He then said that an the medium of some newspapers that access to the attic witness was his late colleague, Hon. Mr. Balfour, had not aware of them. Witness been engaged in preparing a license bill. Such was entirely a mistake. He, the Premier, did not think that Mr. Premier, did not think that Mr. Premier, did not think that Mr. Balfour had prepared anything of the his office, and Mr. McCoubrey behind kind. The Government had now had the counter—that was all he could reboth sides of the case presented to them. Both sides would be looked 11 a.m. Then he proceeded upstairs into, one quite as thoroughly as the other. Continuing, Mr. Hardy said that he would be very glad if the liquor and temperance men could come an approximate agreement, but, failing that, the Government would have to use their own judgment and pass such legislation as might seem to large. The remarks of the Premier vere received with applause.

The members of the Government present were, besides the Premier, Hon. . J. Davis, Hon. Col. Gibson, Hon. Richard Harcourt and Hon. Geo. W

Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Parmelee's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effusions from ood into the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. "Good morning: I suppose this is as good a cause as you can support—a labor man." I said "Yes." This was after you had got the (Laughter.) A.—Yes. (Laughter.)
Q.—Prior to that you were in a state of doubt?

A.—Yes. (Laughter.)
Q.—Did Tracy give you anything?
A.—Yes. I got $1 50. Q.—Anything more?
A.—Yes; 25 cents the Sunday before

Q.—Where? A.—Outside Mr. Toothe's office. Q.-On Sunday?

A.—Yes. Q.—Did Tracy come out of Toothe's A.—Yes. Q.—What did you ask for?

Q.—What did you ask for?
A.—For some money.
Q.—What did he say?
A.—He said: "Here's a quarter; go and get a drink. (Laughter.)
A.—And so you were in $1 75 on the election, besides some free drinks without ice? (Laughter.)

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOHN MURPHY. Witness to Mr. Hellmuth, said it was Toothe & McPhillips' office, Robinson Hall, he went to on the Sunday, and he rapped at an inside door. Mr. Tracy came out. He did not see Mr. Toothe or Mr. McPhillips there. The door closed quickly. He had known Tracy 18 or 20 years, and never got a dollar from him in his life before. He had not been in the habit of getting money from Mr. Tracy before. He got the $1 50 in the Conservative rooms. Nobody was present but himself and Tracy. It was given him just out-side the billiard room, in a small hall-

$8 50 COMING TO HIM. Q.—What did Tracy say when he gave you the $1 50? A.—He said, "There is $8 to you, Jack.

Q.-Have you ever asked him for the quarter from Tracy?
A.—That was after the election. I asked him then when he was coming up with the rest of the stuff. Tracy said he would see me in the morning, after he gave me the quarter. Witness voted, but not for Mr. Beattie. Q.—Did you ever tell Tracy that you did not vote for Beattie? A.→No. Q.→How much did you get from the other party for your vote?

A.—Nothing.
Judge Ferguson (to Mr. Hellmuth)— The statutes say you are not to ask a witness how he voted. Witness said he saw perhaps 10 or 12 men in the Conservative attic. He did not notice the men much, as he was taking exercise on the gymnasium bars. He saw Bill Mason, Sutherland, Cameron, Webb, Tracy and others, whose names he did not remember. He saw no violence there. Witness admitted he was in the Police Court ten days ago on the charge of drunkenness. He supposed it was a relapse after his experience at the Conserva-tive Club. (Laughter.) He had only been in the Police Court once in about five years.

To Mr. Osler witness said Tracy called him into his barber shop a few days ago and said: "You don't know anything about this, do you? I only gave you the money in quarters like I have done before." Q.—Did you ever get anything from Tracy before?
