McGRAW'S APPEAL

IS NOT SUSTAINED

NEW YORK, June 18.—There can be no appeal from the fine and suspension recently imposed upon Manager Mc-Graw of the New York baseball club by President Tener, according to a ruling of the board of directors of the National League here today. As a result, the $500 fine and the sixteen-day suspension inflicted on the field leader of the local National League team for his attack on Umbire Byron at Cincinnati on June 8 stands, despite the protest and appeal filed by President Hempstead at the conference of his fellow-magnates. The members of the board went upon record as approving the fine and suspension and announced that McGraw's alleged statements reflecting upon the president of the league would be the subject of inquiry at a special meeting tomorrow.

special meeting tomorrow.

The session, which was an all-day affair, was attended by all the eight club presidents, composing the board of directors. In addition, Umptres Byron and Quigley were present, but were not called upon to testfly. Prior to the morning meeting it was announced that the New York club had withdrawn its protest against the penalty imposed by President Tener. When Hempstead arrived for the afternoon session he had changed his mind apparently, for he stated that the New York club desired to appeal from the findings of the league executive. The decision that there could be no The decision that there could be no appeal was finally reached after a careful reading of the constitution, in which it was found that section 25 applied to McGraw's offence rather than section 30, as previously supposed. The former section reads that where the charges are filed by an umpire there shall be no appeal from the president's penalty except in a case where expulsion of the offending player from the league is the offending player from the league is
