McAll Mission Musicale.

The Parkdale Auxiliary of the McAll Mission are to be congratulated on the excellence of the program rendered at their "musicale" held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Moore, corner of Jameson-avenue and King-street. The evening was a perfect one, and the attendance of about 200 of Parkdale's music lovers was an inspiration. Rev. W. H. Hincks led the devotions, assisted by Rev. Bernard Bryan. An artistically executed plano solo was given by Miss Maud Dowsley. Miss May Perry with her usual grace and sweetness won her audience in her very first number. Donald C. MacGregor, Toronto's favorite baritone, fairly captivated the audience, and Horace Davis sang "The Good Shepherd," which was very much appreciated. Bernard Rickman has a rich, clear dramatic tenor voice. Mrs. Edward Faulds was the accompanist. Rev. A. Logan Geggie gave a short address on "What the McAll Mission is doing to evangelize the people of France." Mrs. A. C. Rutherford told off the change the Canadian Association had made in the support of the work in France, from Rochefort and La Rochelle, provincial towns, which had been their special care for 22 years, to Grenelle and Javel, stations in Paris. Members visiting Paris would now have an opportunity to see where their money is being expended, and take a more intelligent interest in the work. Eleven new members were added to the auxiliary. The receipts at the meeting totaled over $30. Mrs. Hamilton, president, occupied the chair. Rev. Vernon Cowsert closed the meeting with prayer.

Coming Events.

Parkdale W.C.T.U. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Parkdale Methodist Church (corner King-street and Dunn-avenue). All ladies interested in temperance reform cordially invited.

AT THE THEATRES

The current offering, "A Runaway Girl," as presented by the Imperial Opera Company at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, is replete with many innovations and novelities which conspire to bring the musical comedy up to the present day. The interpolated ballad, "To-night," by Zardo, as sung by Harry Girard in the second act, is one of the most popular, while the shadow dance, as executed by Miss Adelaide Manoia and Clarence Harvey in their "Pickaninny" number, gives the play a modern flavor.

Wasn't the Lowest Tenderer for Supply of Militia Dept. Machines. But That Wasn't Necessary.

OTTAWA, June 4.-In the public acounts committee this morning Mr. Crocket conducted an examination as to certain lapor-saying machinery purchased for the Dominion arsenal at Quebec. Potter & Johnson of Paw-tucket, R. I., were the makers. disappearance of the Stanstead by-election papers must have been a result of the bad memory of the late clerk of the Lieut.—Col. Gaudet of the arsenal giving orders that these machines should be purchased from L. S. Macoun, who is a son-in-law of Sir Frederick Borden. Macoun had no warehouse or factory, but he appears to have sold supplies of various kinds to the militia department, including a quantity of copper.

For this only three persons were asked to tender. The lowest tender was put in by the Vogelsary Company of New York. Macoun and D. J. Coughlin of Montreal quoted the same price. The tenders were referred to the minister of militia, and the contract was awarded

Col. Jarvis said one reason the con tract was not given the New York firm was because it wanted a cash mer resort. By telephoning your order payment and the department felt that there should be an inspection. It developed, however, that the departm paid Macoun before a test of the metal was made, and advanced $33,000 on consignment before it had arrived in the country.
