of the original 102 rinks entered for the city championship only 42 now remain, showing how slippery and sure you are of defeat in the game of curling. Thirty retired on Friday and the number last night. Three victores on Monday went to the winners Aberdeens Win Both Their without a struggle, while two others equired extra ends. It was Aberdeens' hight, the East Toronto players curling with a clean sheet. The Granites' casualties ran up in the double figures, but they had nine wins. Queen City won eight to six losses, while Prospect Park also had a good night and it was a toss up for Parkdale. The defeat of Student Cameron made it the last of the Varsitys. It is quite evident that there is little love lost between Harry Pulliam, president of the National League, and Pat Powers, occupying a similar position in the Eastern League, and the Class AA man does not suffer in the controversy. In his New York statement, just issued Pulliam takes this crack at Powers:

"Pat Powers, president of the Eastern League, repeatedly has seen fit to make my job as hard as possible. He says that he has been in sympathy with the Eastern League's demand for recognition for two he has been in sympathy with the Eastern League's demand for recognition for two years, yet last spring he got me into a row with the National Association that will be remembered for many years.
When the entire community was waiting on the board of directors for a decision in the protested Chicago-New York game of Sept. 23, Powers, as head of the National Association and Eastern League, came forward with a voluntary statement that my umpires were wrong and that the board of directors of the National Eague would not back me up in my contentions. Powers' statement was in poor taste, and I so told all hands in Cincinnatte I am not a warlike individual, but I think Powers belongs somewhere else
than in baseball."

Milnes' men were without Morrison, Birmingham, who took his place, did not appear to advantage. Otherwise the visitors looked the real goods, especially Kerr, whose forward rushes showed a burst of speed too much for his team mates. His playing was the feature of the game. Lalonde, Corbeau and Tyner put up good hockey, altho Newsy was watched closely.

For Brantford Jack Marks was the star. His back checking broke up many a dangerous combination. Throop helped the latter at the same game, and with the defence playing a weak and with the defence playing a could not deliver them. McRoble, their cover, was suspended by his manager for attempting to work a hold-up game. That may have been account-defence, but the fact remains that they had too many gool keepers, and Tooze was handicapped by being crowded. Fitzgerald and Smith were the best men the visitors had, while Galt's whole line was in the limelight. The Metropolitan Hockey Club will practise this evening at Victoria Colgatt, Haley, O'Leary, Small Lockhart, Potts and Sawyer.

In the Methodist Young Men's League the following changes of dates have been made: Woodgreen v. Metropoli-Cook tan, changed from Jan. 12 to Saturday,

The following are the practice hours at Mutual-street to-night: 6,30, Toronto Pros.; 7.30, Toronto Rowing Club; 8.30, Eurekas; 9.30, Osgoode Hall.

In the Anglican Hockey League, St. Simons Juniors had little trouble disposing of St. Augustine's Juniors last night on the former's ice by a score of 12 to 0. The winners had the game in hand from the very start, and always kept their end of the ice well protected, so that even when they were two men short at one stage of the game St. Augustine's could not find the nets. The score was 6 to 0 at half-time, and St. Simon's added as many more in the second period. The line-up was as fol-

St. Simon's (12)—Goal, Ardagh Coe; point, Percy Statham; cover, Walter Davidson; rover, Otto Burkart; centre, Fred Mills; wings, Percy Brown and Fred Lepper.

St. Augustine's (0)—Goal, C. Chandler; point, Higginbotham; cover, Miller; rover, Manley; centre, Baker; wings, Gilbert and DuGruchy.

Knights of Pythias.

In the Knights of Pythias League, Mystics in their characteristic mysterious manner, owing no doubt to their invincible team work, took two games out of three from their formidable Riverdale opponents, and the Amicus, the present leaders in the league, again demonstrated their superiority by taking three straights from the tailenders. Scores:
