"EX." ENQUIRY NETS—$2000 FOR CITY FUND

130,000 programs, Mail Job, per thousand and $4.00.

Richard Southam, representing the Mail Job, declared on examination that the tender had been accepted by letter at $4.75. In this connection the letter from Dr. Orr was quoted. It said: "I beg to advise you that your tender for 150,000 programs has been accepted at $4.75 a thousand."

Willing to Refund.
Mr. Southam said that it was quite possible that subsequent to the tender being submitted, Dr. Orr had arranged with them to have them accept the work at $4.60 per thousand. He said that would be the best case, his firm would willingly refund the difference, as they had rendered their account had been paid $4.75. A further entry in the newspaper showed that they had run off additional copies at $4.50, a price 10 cents per thousand in advance of their accepted tender.

Dr. Orr declared that there were considerations outside the actual work, having regard to other work being done, that made the Mail Job offer more acceptable than that of the Book Room, even at the lower prices tendered by that concern.

Advertising Commissions.
The payment of $200 by Manager Orr's personal cheque in 1905 to C. B. McNaught for commissions on certain advertising secured for the program while McNaught was employed as advertising solicitor at a salary of $800, per in $200 monthly instalments may also be commented on in the report. His work, according to the evidence, took about two hours every day and he was also drawing commission of 25 per cent on the advertising he secured for that year's program. The cheque in question was for certain accounts which did not appear in the association's cash book, but the cheques for which he said he had turned in to Dr. Orr. He said that the money had been paid by Dr. Orr in this way, as he wanted it for a particular reason at the time.

GOULTHRIE AND WIFE STILL HID FROM VIEW

It Now Appears That Fugitive Started Originally For Minneapolis.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 29.—One of the developments of the day at the printing bureau is the fact that a well-known employee of the bindery received his dismissal yesterday after examination by Hon. Charles Murphy, who is continuing the personal search for the fugitive. The man's name is Bailey and he is said to have openly practised money-lending at the bureau.

It is stated that Gouldthrie left by the Soo train at 1.50 on Tuesday morning of last week. He bought a ticket at the Central depot and was heading for Minneapolis, where he has a brother residing. Knowledge that the police were on his track caused him to alter his plans and to put across to the city of Minneapolis. Saturday his wife went to look for him. She, too, traveled in a westerly direction. The only child, a little five-year-old boy, is staying with friends on Waverly-street.

The wife, it is stated, left Ottawa with the purpose of bringing him back rather than have him brought back in handcuffs, as was threatened by the officials of the government.

Many Loyal Friends.
Ottawa is full of Gouldthrie's friends. For instance, the photographer who took a picture of Gouldthrie some time ago is his friend and refuses steadfastly to give out pictures of the all aged fugitive. It is even said that he destroyed the negative. Then, again, it is said that a certain ticket clerk in Ottawa is a friend of Gouldthrie and did not hurry to tell the police what he knew.

Gouldthrie has a brother in St. Paul in the hardware business.

He is now about 45 years of age and about 5 feet 6 inches in height. He would weigh, perhaps, 130 pounds. He was spare. His head was his most noteworthy feature. It is said it always attracted notice. It was peculiarly deep from the forehead thru to the back. The back of the head projected an unusual distance out. He had iron grey hair. The face was in comparison, short. His manner was quiet, almost shy.

Fell Into Snare.
Ottawa is more sorry for Gouldthrie than anything else. It is felt that he was the victim of pernicious commercial practices rather than of his own criminal instincts. He walked into traps that were cunningly baited. Half the city blames a certain man who, it is said, when he obtained control of a certain Cobalt mine, coolly placed a big block of stock in Gouldthrie's name. Porthwistle Gouldthrie began placing orders for supplies from this man. There are said to be enough supplies to last twenty years. Men who know Gouldthrie declared that until this mining transaction happened, Gouldthrie apparently lived within his income. It was only after that that his wife began to appear in seclusion and ermine.

Two letters mailed in Detroit and addressed to Mrs. Frank Gouldthrie, were intercepted in the postoffice here this morning and turned over to the secretary of state. All mail is going to his hands.

The Detroit police are inclined to believe that Frank Gouldthrie, the missing Ottawa official, made a get away to Chicago when he arrived on the 20. & C. boat at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and left Detroit for Chicago at 8.25. By this means the missing man could make close connections for his flight to Chicago.

There is doubt that his wife was with him on the boat.

DIED FROM SUNSTROKE

Frank Carr of Toronto Victim of Boating at Streetsville.

STREETSVILLE, June 29.—(Special.)—As the result of sunstroke, received while boating on the river here yesterday, Frank Carr, a young man, whose home is in Toronto, died this morning.

Mr. Carr, who had recently returned from Cobalt, was here on a holiday and was visiting his brother, who is the proprietor of the Franklin House. Deceased was 24 years of age.

Valuable Dog Poisoned.
C. B. Williams is mourning the loss of a valuable Alsatian terrier, which was found poisoned at Mr. Williams' lumber mill, 11 St. Alban's-street, yesterday morning. The animal is one of a pair, valued at $100, and had always been kept muzzled and was regarded as most inoffensive. The animal was found to be sick yesterday morning and a vet. was called in, but it died. The cause was diagnosed as strychnine poisoning.
