

MANY PROBLEMS AWAIT MEMBERS

Lengthy Program Will Keep Ontario House in Session Some Weeks.

KNOTTY QUESTIONS

Hydro Legislation and O.T.A. Amendments Among Matters for Decision.

The Ontario legislature enters upon its tenth week of the second session tomorrow afternoon, when the members, fresh from their Easter holidays, face a lengthy program of business, which, under ordinary circumstances, will take fully four weeks to get thru, although, if they maintain the same rate of progress which characterized the first eight weeks, the legislative wheels may be running strong at Whitsuntide, which is seven weeks away.

There is far more business yet to be tackled than the average citizen is aware of. Legislation has been promised by the government, for instance, on the Hydro committee's famous report, which, among other things, recommended a $2 tax per horse power developed within the province. Dr. Drury has already publicly announced his opposition to the $2, but he is known to be in favor of a modified sum ranging between fifty cents and a dollar.

The Hydro radial commission, by the way, resumes today and is likely to go on for a protracted period. The "diggers" being paid by the government to unearth anything and everything detrimental to radial or hydro in general are still busy and no doubt will continue so as long as this generous administration hands out the needed in the shape of good dollars. The hope is expressed in many quarters that the premier and his colleagues will be better advised on the forthcoming Hydro legislation than they were on the appointment and conditions of the commission. It cannot be reiterated too often that the Ontario government is paying all the expenses of the commission, including even the fee of opposing counsel and so-called "expert" witnesses.

Then the contentious amendments to the O.T.A. have yet to be disposed of, and these will be good for a day or two of the time of the house. Mr. Raney, it will be remembered, conceded to a bare majority to a county judge from a conviction, but the amendments, provided for practically reopening the cases if fresh evidence can be adduced. The very mention of O.T.A. is almost enough to start a debate and sometimes a row in the house, so what may be expected when the amendments referred to come up for final consideration?

The nictel question is also hanging fire. Harley Dowart started the merry ball rolling with his resolution

WANTS BACKUS LETTERS

Howard Ferguson has also called for a return of correspondence with friend Backus and others relating to the Lake of the Woods pulp concession, and the White Dog Rapids water power and the recent sale of pulp wood and timber of the English River concession—and this might lead anywhere in the matter of discussion. Some important changes are also to be made in the workmen's compensation act, and Harley Dowart has a responsible government, the one which may hit the administration rather hard.
