

DONATIONS TO THE LIBRARY.—(Continued).

| DATE. | DONOR'S NAME AND TITLE OF BOOK.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1889. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Sept. | GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY, London —Abstract of Proceedings, 1888-1889.SOCIETY OF NATURAL HISTORY, Portland, Me.—Proceedings, 1881, Oct. 3 to May 2nd—1882, Jan. 2nd to Feb. 20th 1889, May 20—Report of Commissioner of Fisheries, Maine, 1871, '72, '73, '74, '75, '77 and '79—N. C. Brown's Catalogue of Birds.VEREIN FÜR ERDKUNDE, Leipzig.—Mitteilungen, 1888, 1889.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Oct.  | G. F. MATTHEW.—Recent Explorations in Wappinger Valley, by W. B. Dwight.ESSEX INSTITUTE, Salem.—Bulletin, Vol. 21, Nos. 1-3, 4-6, 7-12.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Nov.  | GEOL. AND NAT. HIST. SURVEY OF CANADA.—Contributions to Canadian Palæontology, Vol. II, Part II.U. S. FISH COMMISSION, Washington.—Report for 1886.U. S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, Washington.—Monographs — Quicksilver Deposits of Pacific Coast; Fossil Fishes and Plants—Bulletins, Nos. 48 to 53. [Hyot.THE AUTHOR.—Siege of Fort St. John's, in 1875, by LucienBOSTON SOCIETY OF NATURAL HISTORY.—Vol. XXIV., Part I. and II.W. F. GANONG.—List of publications on protozoa.E. GILPIN, C. E., Halifax —Law on Mines and Minerals, Nova Scotia.THE AUTHOR.—Coal Mining in Nova Scotia, by E. Gilpin.THE AUTHOR.—Compte-rendu, Société Géologique de Belgique a Spa—Faune palæocène de Copenhague—Note sur calcaires oolithiques; all by Prof. G. Dewalque. |
| Dec.  | THE AUTHOR.—New Species of Fossil Sponges—On Fossil Plants of McKenzie R.; both by Sir J. W. Dawson.GEOL. AND NAT. HIST. SURVEY OF CANADA.—Micropalæontology of the Cambro-silurian Rocks, by E. O. Ulrich.NOVA SCOTIA INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE, Halifax.—Proceedings, Vol. VII., Part III.UNITED STATES DEPT. AGRICULTURE, Washington.—Bulletin, No. 1. North American Fauna, Nos. 1 and 2.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1890. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Jan.  | NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM, Rio de Janeiro—Archives of the Museum, Vol. I., Parts 1, 2 and 3.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |