In View of Heavy Expenditures, the Government May Be Forced to Defer Beginning of Big Project.

OTTAWA, March 23 .- (Special.)-The tion this afternoon and evening the supplementary estimates for the com-men are lying in the hospitals in a danwas on and a considerable number of Items recommended by the various departments were struck out but it is understood a very large amount in the aggregate particularly for new public works thruout Canada still remain on the revised list.

It is not yet known whether or not the government will proceed this year with the Georgian Bay Canal project. The minister of public works is pressing for it and has submitted a recommendation to council for an appropria-on in the supplementaries to enable start to be made this year. It is oubtful, however, if the government rill see its way clear in view of the ecord expenditures for the coming fis-

In Anthracite Region Miners Are Obdurate

President John T. White is Hopeful That Suspension Time for April 1 Will Not Come to Pass-Committee Will Consider Miners' Demands

NEW YORK, March 23.-Representatives in this city of the anthracite coal operators said to-day that there was no change in the situation as regards the demands of the miners for increased pay. It is thought probable, however, that the operators will get together for a meeting some time next week, in order to take some action looking to averting suspension of work on April 1, which the miners have threatened unless their demands are granted. Some statement bearing on the matter may be issued here to-mor-

CLEVELAND, March 23.-Altho the conference of operators and miners called to setle the wass dispute in the bituminous coal fields had adjourned until next Tuesday, officials of the United Mine Workers of America continued to hold meetings here to-day. The union's policy committee, which has power to make recommendations for referendum voting by the union, will convene here Monday to consider the demands of the miners in the anthracite fields, recently denied by the thracite fields, recently denied by the operators.

John P. White, president of the union, said he still was hopeful that a suspension on April 1, when the present wage scales expire, might be avoided. The desire of the operators of the bituminous mines to continue negotiations next week, he said, indicated the possibility of a settlement, but he knew of no present plan to resume negotiations with the operators for an adjustment of the differences of the anthracite miners. thracite miners.

My friends were charitable and called it obesity; others said I was STOUT, but I know, it was just bulky fat. I was miscrable, and so are you if too stout. To reduce your weight, you must do as I did. I FOUND THE CAUSE — THE REST WAS EASY, Before I succeeded, I tried every-thing within and some things beyond reason. It was maddening, disgusting, alarming.
