WEDDINGS

Creighton-Wetmore

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in All Saints Episcopal church at Clifton yesterday afternoon, when Miss Ella M. Wetmore, daughter of the late Marshall Wetmore, became the wife of Herbert E. Creighton, of Silver Falls. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. H. Wainwright, was witnessed by a large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of white silk, and carried a shower bouquet. She was given away by her brother, F. W. Wetmore, of Providence, R. I.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and greenery.

After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their new home in Silver Falls. Many handsome and costly wedding gifts were received, including a dozen sterling silver spoons from the principal and teachers of the V. Y. school, where the bride was formerly on the teaching staff.

Among the outside guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wetmore, Mrs. L. C. Wetmore and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carleton, of St. John; F. A. Wetmore, of Providence, R. I.; and Miss Hattie Creighton and Clifford Creighton, of Silver Falls.

CITY COURT CASES

In the city court this morning, before Magistrate Ritchie, several actions for debt were contested.

The Canadian Rubber Co. sued a livery stable keeper for $600, which it was claimed was due for a rubber tire placed on a wheel. A receipt of the wheel was offered in evidence, signed by an employee of the defendant in his livery stable. The defendant denies receiving the wheel or of leaving the order.

C. S. Hamilton represented the plaintiff company and on his request adjournment was granted until next Thursday.

Only one witness was examined in the much postponed suit for $10, preferred by the N. B. Telephone Company against Dr. James Smith and J. E. Hurd individually for telephone service incurred by the Empire Medical Company, of which enterprise it is claimed by the plaintiffs both Smith and Hurd were promoters.

J. W. Price, who appeared for the plaintiff concern, called Mr. Hurd as a witness to testify in the suit against Dr. Smith, but he failed to comply with the summons. Tomorrow afternoon, the evidence of Dr. Smith, who is ill, will be taken by commission.

J. B. M. Baxter represented Dr. Smith and E. S. Ritchie appeared for Mr. Hurd. The offices of the medical company were at 49 Princess street. Dr. Smith defends the suit on the ground that he was not interested in the defunct company.

D. McLaughlin & Sons brought action against J. S. McGivern for $34, alleged to be due for rent of coal shed. A set off amounting to slightly over $8 paid into court by the defendant was not recognized by the plaintiffs.

E. L. Gervoy for the plaintiffs and E. S. Ritchie for the defendant.

THEY WILL NOT WAKE SNAKES

Dr. Macrae and H. A. Powell Will Meet in the Opera House Tonight but There Will be No Names Called.

Dr. A. W. Macrae, K.C., the Liberal-Conservative candidate in the city and county of St. John and H. A. Powell, K.C., the man whom the Liberal-Conservatives of St. John city and county really wanted for their candidate will meet on the platform in the Opera House tonight.

At the meeting Dr. Macrae is expected to tell the people what great and glorious things he will do for St. John if he is given the opportunity.

And Mr. Powell is expected to tell the people what a really estimable man Dr. Macrae is and how deeply he would rejoice to see "his friend" Dr. Macrae occupy one of the seats of the mighty at Ottawa.

And tomorrow morning the Conservative campaign poster will tell the people of St. John that he did not go to the Opera House—that the Conservative party is solidly united in St. John and swinging on to victory.

Does any one for a minute suppose that Mr. Powell will tell his hearers what he really thinks about Dr. Macrae?

Not anyone who knows the facts! Mr. Powell let himself loose once and told Dr. Macrae just what he really thought of him.

On that occasion he called the present candidate A SERPENT.

And he meant it.

Anyone who heard him say it or who saw the fierce "I mean every word of it" expression that passed over Mr. Powell's small countenance like a cloud, over the summer sun could not but see that he was sincere when he placed Macrae in this line.

The date of Mr. Powell's interesting statement was August 31, 1908—just a month ago—and the place was the assembly room of Keith's Theatre.

Dr. Macrae had been nominated over W. Frank Hatheway, as the Liberal-Conservative candidate for the city and county. It was a surprise to a great many, but not a surprise to Dr. Macrae. Why should it be? He had "gone after" that nomination with an axe and like a little boy used to advertise a certain soap.

Certainly he had a right to get all the short satisfaction out of it he could.

Mr. Powell was not pleased. He didn't like the long nomination, but he didn't quite relish Dr. Macrae in the role of a political fruit basket. A certain article in the Orange Sentinel, honoring Dr. Macrae ranked in his breast, and some one, some how had connected Macrae's name with it. The article was calculated to have a certain influence upon a certain large section of this community. And it hurt.

Consequently when Dr. Macrae, flushed with victory, approached Mr. Powell and extended his hand, apparently for congratulation, Mr. Powell was not in any humor to throw bouquets.

He felt more like calling names.

Now as Dr. Macrae had just succeeded in landing the nomination, let us see how Mr. Powell might have called him a lemon squeezer—but he didn't. He fell back on one of Robert's "cherries and uglies" terms and called him a serpent.

An eye witness tells this story of the interview.

Dr. Macrae asked Mr. Powell to support him in the campaign.

Mr. Powell intimated that he would use his own judgment as to that and followed it up by saying "I may as well tell you now to your face, Macrae, that you're a serpent."

Friends of both men abruptly terminated the interview but as Mr. Powell will probably speak in Dr. Macrae's support tonight many are wondering what he will call him this time.

The question is being freely asked today if Dr. Macrae was a serpent in the opinion of H. A. Powell on the evening of Aug. 31, 1908, what will be on the evening of Oct. 1, of the same year, and if he is something else and not a serpent, which of Mr. Powell's opinions should go on record.

H. PRICE WEBBER TO VISIT P. E. ISLAND

Veteran Showman Leaves Today for a Tour of the Island and Looks Forward to a Successful Season.

H. Price Webber and the Boston Comedy Co., passed through the city today en route to Summerside. The company has just toured Maine and reports good success. They will spend five weeks on the island, and will then go to Cape Breton. Mr. Webber states that he had no scenery stored at Amherst at the time of the fire, and therefore did not lose any. The veteran actor is in his usual fine health and spirits.

Mr. Webber is now in his 34th year as a purveyor of legitimate and clean dramatic entertainment and has with him this season a strong company, including several new members.
