through an afternoon without a run. Only one club—the Browns—in the American League has surpassed this figure and they are the possessors of a record of seven shut-outs so far. The Yankees and Athletics are tied with the White Sox.
The Cleveland Indians lead in the matter of avoiding shut outs, having been led to the whitewash dip only once. In the National League the Phillies have so far escaped the brush completely.
There must be something in the Chicago air. Comiskey Park, or the way the Chicago fans cheer for Eddie Collins and Joe Jackson, American League famous sluggers, are far behind their wanted

All Cars in One New Standards
The eight new Mitchell body styles combine all cars in one. They embody all the best attractions found in 257 late models.
Each style is exclusive, designed by Mitchell artists and built by Mitchell craftsmen. In finish and luxury they show an added cost of 24 per cent over last year's Mitchell models.
All have the Bate shock-absorbing springs—the comfort springs which have never yet been broken.
They are built to the standard of 100 per cent over-strength—twice the usual margin of safety. That makes them lifetime cars.
They differ from the average fine car in a hundred ways. Let us show you those distinctions, and prove the results on the road. You will be surprised to find out how one car so excels the rest.

STAR PLAYERS WHO WANT TO ENLIST

New York, June 14—Eddie Collins, star second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, and "Chick" Gandil, first baseman of the same club, have called upon Manager Rowland to learn what their status would be if they decided to quit the game and don the army uniform. Both men expressed the keenest eagerness to go to the front, but neither wishes to cripple the Comiskey aggregation now that their prospects for a pennant look so bright.
Rowland in a talk with Collins pointed to the fact that every member of the team had waived exemption, and that Comiskey and himself were in perfect accord in the belief that every man on the White Sox payroll should be free to do his duty to his country.
It was pointed out, however, that the military authorities believe that for the present the star ball player is more valuable as a ball player than he would be as a soldier, inasmuch as the desire of the government is to keep baseball and all other sports alive. It was also stated that at the end of the present baseball season every eligible man on the White Sox team would be ready to report for army service.
