the year commenced yesterday, there are some automobile drivers in the province who are still operating their cars on the 1925 license plates. No fewer than four S. Bershudsky and Miss E. cars were observed on the two Gregg Hurt in Wild main roads between Saint John and Dash

Fredericton within the last few days, all bearing tags with last year's date on them. Similar reports have been received here from time to time from other sections of New Brunswick within the last month or so. A Saint John man who reported seeing two of the offending owners on the Frederiz. ton road expressed surprise that they should be allowed by the authorities to operate on the out-ofdate tags, while the rest of the cwners in the province were paying their taxes in the ordinary way.
