

City and County Put Strong Tickets In Field Premier Foster, Hon. Dr. Roberts, W. E. Scully and R. T. Hayes In City

A. F. Bentley and Dr. Curren Chosen By County; Spirited Addresses by Candidates; Enthusiastic Conventions

Strong tickets that are in themselves an assurance of victory were placed in the field for both the city and county of St. John at the government conventions held last evening for that purpose.

Hon. W. E. Foster, premier of the province; Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, minister of public health; W. E. Scully, who was a candidate in the last election, and R. T. Hayes, former mayor of St. John, constitute the city ticket; and A. F. Bentley, former M. P. P., and Dr. L. M. Curren were chosen for the county.

Both conventions were conducted in a business-like manner and in that democratic spirit for which the party is distinguished. There was no suggestion of machine politics; each delegate exercised the power conferred upon him according to his own judgment and, when the nominations had been made, all united in making them unanimous.

The earnestness of the delegates, their optimism and their enthusiasm showed how ready they were for the kind of fight that spells success, and how confident they were of that success. With justifiable pride in the men they had chosen as their standard bearers, the delegates showed their assurance of victory in the coming campaign. With such candidates as leaders, with such a fighting force united behind them and with the support of the independent, thinking electors who stand ready to show their approval of good government, there was no doubt in the minds of those present last evening of the sweeping victory which awaits them.

The Ballotting. When the convention was called to order at 8.15 by Dr. L. M. Curren, a full representation from every ward was present. By unanimous vote, G. E. Barbour was elected chairman and J. B. Dever secretary. After considerable discussion of the methods of procedure in selecting candidates, it was voted that the first four candidates to receive a majority of the votes cast be declared the nominees of the convention. The following scrutineers were appointed by the chairman: S. W. MacLellan, H. A. Lyman, Arthur McCloskey, George Gray and Frank J. Alexander.

On nominations from the floor the following names were voted on: W. E. Scully, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Hon. W. E. Foster, William L. Ryan, J. Fred Belyea, R. T. Hayes and W. L. Harding. Dr. Curren and Alexander McMillan also were nominated from the floor, but the convention granted their requests that their names be withdrawn.

The counting of the first ballot showed that Hon. Dr. Foster, Hon. Dr. Roberts, Mr. Hayes and Mr. Scully had been the choice of the convention, and on motion of Horace A. Porter the nomination were made unanimous. On motion of Mr. Porter the chairman, vice-chairman and secretaries of the wards with the candidates, were named a campaign committee for the city. The first meeting of the executive will be held in the Furlong building at noon today.

Premier Foster, Hon. Dr. Roberts and Mr. Scully were accorded a rousing, old time reception when they arrived in the hall. Mr. Hayes, who had been absent from the city, sent a telegram that he would accept the nomination if it was the will of the convention that he should be named. This announcement was greeted with applause.

Hon. Dr. Roberts. The chairman called upon Hon. Dr. Roberts to address the convention, which received the minister of health with a great outburst of enthusiasm. When he could be heard Hon. Dr. Roberts said he could assure the delegates that he appreciated fully the honor they had done him in placing his name on the ticket which would contest the election for Premier Foster's administration on October 9. He had been similarly honored on two occasions, first when he was elected when some of their true friends had fallen and again when he was elected by acclamation last spring, when he would rather have had a contest. He assured the delegates that he realized the honor they had conferred upon him, and felt that they had done him a great deal of good, and what he had attempted to do, or what he would not have nominated him, he started out in political life not quite knowing what was ahead of him, but he was glad to tell them that the government had succeeded in carrying out ideals it had in mind. He would like to congratulate those whom the convention had seen fit to select and with whom he would have the honor of winning a great victory.

He was sure there were none present but who were proud of having on the ticket the Hon. W. E. Foster. In the first days of the legislature under his premiership it was amusing to hear comments on the young business man they had at the head of the government. He was called the boy premier, and in the minds of his critics it was absurd.

The next speaker, Mr. Scully, was received with vigorous applause. Mr. Scully said he wanted to thank the delegates heartily for the honor they had conferred upon him. He considered it a great honor to be on the ticket with Premier Foster and Hon. Dr. Roberts. It was also an honor to be on a ticket for the second time. When in opposition the party had advocated a workmen's compensation act, and he was glad to point to the fact that it had become law. Dr. Roberts had been active in getting a satisfactory health act on the statute books and that act had been a success so far as he had heard. The public works department had been ably handled and he complimented Hon. F. J. Veniot. Again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

Premier Foster. A distinct ovation and whole-hearted greeting fell to the lot of Premier Foster when he rose to address the convention. After a long continued round of applause three hearty cheers and a tiger were given by all the delegates standing, for New Brunswick's prime minister. The premier suggested to the enthusiastic audience, when he began to speak, that the cheers had a ring of victory. He felt that he had fought an uphill fight since he entered the political arena in 1912. J. Veniot again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

A distinct ovation and whole-hearted greeting fell to the lot of Premier Foster when he rose to address the convention. After a long continued round of applause three hearty cheers and a tiger were given by all the delegates standing, for New Brunswick's prime minister. The premier suggested to the enthusiastic audience, when he began to speak, that the cheers had a ring of victory. He felt that he had fought an uphill fight since he entered the political arena in 1912. J. Veniot again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

on October 9. He had fought an uphill fight and had fought it on the floor of the legislature. He had fought the fight in the interest of the whole people. Later on, when he had a chance to put before the people what the government had been doing and proposed to do, he felt that "would have the support of the people of St. John.

At this point the premier was interrupted by cheering for Mr. Bentley as he entered the hall. Resuming, Mr. Foster said he wanted to congratulate the delegates on the candidates they had selected, beside himself. Dr. Roberts always had been ready to safeguard the interests of St. John and was ever alive to the interests of the city. The premier also wanted to congratulate the delegates on the selection of Mr. Scully. He would have made a good representative if elected before, and he felt that the whole ticket would be elected on October 9. He believed St. John would approve of the government's programme which would be laid before the citizens, and there was an enormous development for the city.

If they turned their attention to the record of a few years ago he was sure that they would find in the government led by Mr. Murray and those with him had not been fit to rule the province in 1917. There were many who were glad to see the government seemed to have been to enrich themselves or their friends at the public expense. They were dark days for the province, and when the general elections came on the people rose in their might and hurled the government from power. Their press in those days had been a powerful ally and the party even called on the lieutenant-governor to call another election, and they endeavored in every way to stir up race and religious hatreds among the people of the province, but happily, no attention was paid to them. After the appeal to the people, the government was elected opposition leader. He would have preferred to follow them, and today he would gladly lay down the reins of office to some one who would be in the best interests of the party that should be done.

Government Policies. Premier Foster said he was glad to see Mr. Bentley present. Mr. Bentley was the man whom he had in mind, and he wanted to see him in the house. There were few in whom the people had so much confidence as he had in his former colleague, and he was sure that road policy was of great benefit to St. John county. The government's power development policy would also greatly benefit the county. The government was going to erect a power development plant at Musquash, and he felt that it would be of vast importance to the section of the province to support this and other projects when they came before the house. The premier felt that the people of the county would have another able champion in Dr. Curren, and he was very glad the county delegates had selected these two able men to go to Fredericton, and who would look well after the interests of the county.

Hon. Dr. Roberts thought the premier was proud to be on the ticket and that the other candidates were proud to have him on the ticket. He also saw Robert T. Hayes' name on the ticket. To speak of Robert T. Hayes' name before citizens of St. John was sufficient to show that they had elected an honorable gentleman. Mr. Hayes had done wonderful service during the years of war. He was on duty early and retired late. He saw many of the boys go away and he welcomed them home, and the last three years, and every elector should be enthusiastic.

Hon. Dr. Roberts thought the premier was proud to be on the ticket and that the other candidates were proud to have him on the ticket. He also saw Robert T. Hayes' name on the ticket. To speak of Robert T. Hayes' name before citizens of St. John was sufficient to show that they had elected an honorable gentleman. Mr. Hayes had done wonderful service during the years of war. He was on duty early and retired late. He saw many of the boys go away and he welcomed them home, and the last three years, and every elector should be enthusiastic.

Dr. Roberts also observed with pleasure the convention had nominated Mr. Scully of the west side. He had heard there were other names balloted for and he was sure any of them would have made a good candidate. He congratulated the premier on his selection as a candidate and he had no doubt as to what the outcome would be on October 9. Their friends of the opposition were in a peculiar position. They had what was known as the Murray-Baxter government previous to the present control by Premier Foster. They had not the Baxter-Murray party with a few other names added. The present government had pointed out those names for reasons that were well known to the opposition leaders since they have now a party. Yes it was the Baxter-Murray party. He believed that Mr. Curren was now a farmer—he would not say a member, for that would not be. Then in Carleton county they had the Hon. B. F. Smith, whom they had known quite well, and who was now an independent. And so they could go through the whole Baxter administration of a few years ago, and tonight they recognized the Hon. W. E. Scully as a member of the party.

It was true that Mr. Baxter was a wonderful man and he had shown an ability by getting the same men back under a different cloak. It was the same old party the government forces had to fight. If they all went to work, tomorrow, continued Dr. Roberts, and worked until October 9, there was no question what the result would be. He was glad that in the county Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren had been nominated. Dr. Roberts said he had looked over the situation pretty carefully and he would tell the delegates that Mr. Bentley would have the fight of his life. He was not a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but he had no hesitation in making the prediction that Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren would be successful.

W. E. Scully. The next speaker, Mr. Scully, was received with vigorous applause. Mr. Scully said he wanted to thank the delegates heartily for the honor they had conferred upon him. He considered it a great honor to be on the ticket with Premier Foster and Hon. Dr. Roberts. It was also an honor to be on a ticket for the second time. When in opposition the party had advocated a workmen's compensation act, and he was glad to point to the fact that it had become law. Dr. Roberts had been active in getting a satisfactory health act on the statute books and that act had been a success so far as he had heard. The public works department had been ably handled and he complimented Hon. F. J. Veniot. Again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

Premier Foster. A distinct ovation and whole-hearted greeting fell to the lot of Premier Foster when he rose to address the convention. After a long continued round of applause three hearty cheers and a tiger were given by all the delegates standing, for New Brunswick's prime minister. The premier suggested to the enthusiastic audience, when he began to speak, that the cheers had a ring of victory. He felt that he had fought an uphill fight since he entered the political arena in 1912. J. Veniot again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

Water Power Development. The premier spoke of the many important policies which the government had adopted and which it had in prospect. He had always taken a great interest in the up-building of St. John and the bringing of new industries here. When he was president of the Board of Trade one important new industry had been brought to the city and others would have come had there been cheaper power. Ontario and Quebec had got many new industries, and prior to 1917 the governments of those provinces were active in developing their water powers while our government of those days did nothing. The proposed development at Musquash, only thirteen miles from the city, was an undertaking of vast importance to the city and county, involving an expenditure of over $1,000,000. He was sure that the government would be a fact before he again had occasion to appeal to the electors. The prosperity of other towns of the province depended on the development of water power, for which the government had mapped out an extensive programme.

Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren, who were given warm receptions by the delegates, addressed the convention briefly in the interest of good and honest government. The convention adjourned at 11.30.

Water Power Development. The premier spoke of the many important policies which the government had adopted and which it had in prospect. He had always taken a great interest in the up-building of St. John and the bringing of new industries here. When he was president of the Board of Trade one important new industry had been brought to the city and others would have come had there been cheaper power. Ontario and Quebec had got many new industries, and prior to 1917 the governments of those provinces were active in developing their water powers while our government of those days did nothing. The proposed development at Musquash, only thirteen miles from the city, was an undertaking of vast importance to the city and county, involving an expenditure of over $1,000,000. He was sure that the government would be a fact before he again had occasion to appeal to the electors. The prosperity of other towns of the province depended on the development of water power, for which the government had mapped out an extensive programme.

Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren, who were given warm receptions by the delegates, addressed the convention briefly in the interest of good and honest government. The convention adjourned at 11.30.

liberal graft was evident on every hand, the party demanding toll from the lumbermen and railway contractors as well as from other sources until an indignant public forced a halt to the iniquitous proceedings. "The leaders of that party have not repented for any of their actions," said the speaker; "they have not changed at all from their former course but they are again asking the public for support to go back and do the same as they did before."

True, said the speaker, there had been a change in the leadership of the opposition party. Instead of being the Murray-Baxter government it was now the Baxter-Murray government, but in every sense it is the same old crew out again to start in on the same old policy. There were higher ideals in connection with the franchise now than there ever were before, said Mr. Bentley. The trials and tribulations that had been home to the people through the great war and the sacrifices made for such a victory have given a lesson in the brightness of liberty and civility that not be forgotten. No man, he said, would buy or sell a vote when he knew at what cost the sanctity of the vote had been secured, in the same sense no man would help along a party that would establish without shame such a record as the Murray-Baxter party had left behind it.

The speaker warned the delegates that the contest in St. John county would not be an absolute walk-over. The opposition, he said, was not to do as good things as the government had done, and was accepting every means of clouding the issue and indulging in unfair criticisms. The Foster government had demonstrated its efficiency, honesty, straight and reliable work; it had done wonderfully in the three years it had been in power, and it was proud to be a delegate to the convention. No government was perfect, the speaker declared, but one thing the Foster government had done was to claim, and that was the fact that no scandals had been connected with it. Wonderful work had been done in the roads and bridges notwithstanding the fact that four dollars is needed to do the work that one dollar would do some years ago. All the money that had been borrowed was protected and there was absolutely nothing wrong with the provincial finances. The work of the Foster government in the development of agriculture, the advancement of education, the promotion of public health and the safeguarding of workmen was known all through the country and it was beyond all question, and a recognized fact throughout the province, that every man had his part to play in the present administration.

In closing, the speaker said that he was confident that his colleague and himself would again be elected to the legislature in St. Martin's, and he wanted the other parties to perfect their organization. Many people had made the mistake of thinking the contest was between the Liberal and the Conservative party. It was not, declared the speaker. Dr. Curren was a very hard one to oppose and he was sure that quite a number of influential members of the Conservative party would not vote for the opposition. He did not fear the result would vote for the government.

Dr. Curren, who was greeted with sustained applause, said that he considered it a decided honor to uphold the right and to condemn the wrong, to vote a right and a wrong in the present issue, he said, and he was going to exert every endeavor to win the province over to the right side and send the members of the opposition back home where they belong. The problem of Murray-Baxter or Baxter-Murray was a very hard one to solve, the speaker said, for the voters would simply subtract one from the other and then there would be nothing remaining. He did not fear the result of the people when they know the issue that was at stake.

Hon. Dr. Roberts. The chairman called upon Hon. Dr. Roberts to address the convention, which received the minister of health with a great outburst of enthusiasm. When he could be heard Hon. Dr. Roberts said he could assure the delegates that he appreciated fully the honor they had done him in placing his name on the ticket which would contest the election for Premier Foster's administration on October 9. He had been similarly honored on two occasions, first when he was elected when some of their true friends had fallen and again when he was elected by acclamation last spring, when he would rather have had a contest. He assured the delegates that he realized the honor they had conferred upon him, and felt that they had done him a great deal of good, and what he had attempted to do, or what he would not have nominated him, he started out in political life not quite knowing what was ahead of him, but he was glad to tell them that the government had succeeded in carrying out ideals it had in mind. He would like to congratulate those whom the convention had seen fit to select and with whom he would have the honor of winning a great victory.

He was sure there were none present but who were proud of having on the ticket the Hon. W. E. Foster. In the first days of the legislature under his premiership it was amusing to hear comments on the young business man they had at the head of the government. He was called the boy premier, and in the minds of his critics it was absurd.

The next speaker, Mr. Scully, was received with vigorous applause. Mr. Scully said he wanted to thank the delegates heartily for the honor they had conferred upon him. He considered it a great honor to be on the ticket with Premier Foster and Hon. Dr. Roberts. It was also an honor to be on a ticket for the second time. When in opposition the party had advocated a workmen's compensation act, and he was glad to point to the fact that it had become law. Dr. Roberts had been active in getting a satisfactory health act on the statute books and that act had been a success so far as he had heard. The public works department had been ably handled and he complimented Hon. F. J. Veniot. Again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

Premier Foster. A distinct ovation and whole-hearted greeting fell to the lot of Premier Foster when he rose to address the convention. After a long continued round of applause three hearty cheers and a tiger were given by all the delegates standing, for New Brunswick's prime minister. The premier suggested to the enthusiastic audience, when he began to speak, that the cheers had a ring of victory. He felt that he had fought an uphill fight since he entered the political arena in 1912. J. Veniot again he desired to thank the delegates for their splendid reception and the honor which had been conferred upon him.

Water Power Development. The premier spoke of the many important policies which the government had adopted and which it had in prospect. He had always taken a great interest in the up-building of St. John and the bringing of new industries here. When he was president of the Board of Trade one important new industry had been brought to the city and others would have come had there been cheaper power. Ontario and Quebec had got many new industries, and prior to 1917 the governments of those provinces were active in developing their water powers while our government of those days did nothing. The proposed development at Musquash, only thirteen miles from the city, was an undertaking of vast importance to the city and county, involving an expenditure of over $1,000,000. He was sure that the government would be a fact before he again had occasion to appeal to the electors. The prosperity of other towns of the province depended on the development of water power, for which the government had mapped out an extensive programme.

Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren, who were given warm receptions by the delegates, addressed the convention briefly in the interest of good and honest government. The convention adjourned at 11.30.

Water Power Development. The premier spoke of the many important policies which the government had adopted and which it had in prospect. He had always taken a great interest in the up-building of St. John and the bringing of new industries here. When he was president of the Board of Trade one important new industry had been brought to the city and others would have come had there been cheaper power. Ontario and Quebec had got many new industries, and prior to 1917 the governments of those provinces were active in developing their water powers while our government of those days did nothing. The proposed development at Musquash, only thirteen miles from the city, was an undertaking of vast importance to the city and county, involving an expenditure of over $1,000,000. He was sure that the government would be a fact before he again had occasion to appeal to the electors. The prosperity of other towns of the province depended on the development of water power, for which the government had mapped out an extensive programme.

Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren, who were given warm receptions by the delegates, addressed the convention briefly in the interest of good and honest government. The convention adjourned at 11.30.

Water Power Development. The premier spoke of the many important policies which the government had adopted and which it had in prospect. He had always taken a great interest in the up-building of St. John and the bringing of new industries here. When he was president of the Board of Trade one important new industry had been brought to the city and others would have come had there been cheaper power. Ontario and Quebec had got many new industries, and prior to 1917 the governments of those provinces were active in developing their water powers while our government of those days did nothing. The proposed development at Musquash, only thirteen miles from the city, was an undertaking of vast importance to the city and county, involving an expenditure of over $1,000,000. He was sure that the government would be a fact before he again had occasion to appeal to the electors. The prosperity of other towns of the province depended on the development of water power, for which the government had mapped out an extensive programme.

Liberal Leader Heard By Big Audience In Victoria Last Evening

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 27.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, made the initial address of his western tour before a large crowd here tonight. "A general election is necessary," he asserted "in order to restore to the people control over parliament."

He declared that there should be a revision downward of the tariff with substantial reductions of duties on necessities of life and the instruments of production, and that a reduction of taxation should be made by curbing extravagance. He believed that wider recognition of labor, with representation in the shaping and control of industrial policies, would have the effect of putting an end to industrial strife.

to have so honorable a man as Mr. Bentley for his colleague and expressed the hope that the two would be elected by a large majority on Oct. 9. Major Cuthbert Morgan. Major Morgan, who was well received, said he had not thought of being a candidate until last week and though his candidature was not successful he thought the county had two very able representatives in Mr. Bentley and Dr. Curren, both of them skilled campaigners. He was amazed at the amount of the opposition at the present time. The returned soldiers and the women, he thought, would poll a good vote for the government, and he personally promised all the help that he could possibly give. The Lancaster men were all workers, he said, and it had been decided before he went to the convention that no matter who was nominated, the parish would give all support possible. All he asked the government was to do as good things as when they are elected as the other Foster candidates had done all along; he did not think that more could be expected from anyone.

Brief speeches, mostly of an organizing nature, were made by Councillors S. J. Shanklin, Wendell B. Bentley, J. M. Donovan, J. T. Dalziel, W. Murray Campbell and J. E. O'Donnell. Dr. Henry Gilmore and Chairman McMurray. Councillor Dalziel said the true spirit of the opposition was shown when a former premier asked help in raising $80,000 to cover a deficit that had been caused through the county's rotten potato transaction; that certainly showed what a low state New Brunswick politics could be brought to by the opposition government.

Councillor Campbell said it was his first appearance at a Liberal convention and that he was proud to be a delegate and working for the interests of the people with the Foster government. It had been said of him that he was a "rotten Conservative" but that was last year's business. He was ready to help in any way possible and predicted for the candidate a handsome majority on Oct. 9. Dr. Gilmore said that if for no other reason than the establishment of the department of health, the Foster government should be returned with a substantial majority.

The results of the nominations at the city convention were announced by Secretary Murray and shortly afterwards the meeting adjourned to allow the delegates to attend the city meeting.

FARMERS' TICKET IN KINGS COUNTY

Hampton, N. B., Sept. 27.—W. H. Huggard, of Norton; Frank Roach, of Sturholm, and Hastings Fleveling, of Sturholm, were nominated as the candidates of the United Farmers of Kings county at a meeting which was held here this afternoon, in response to a call issued by their executive. About one hundred persons were present; many of these had not been connected with the organization previously but some of them paid the fee and became members.

Among those present were many who always had been known as Conservatives, among the latter being J. E. McAuley of Lower Millstream, who had presided at the provincial opposition convention in St. John last week and also at the Kings county opposition in Hampton on the following day. Today he attended the farmers' meeting, accompanied by a large party of his relatives and friends, paid the $1 fee and became a member of that organization. It is understood that his name was suggested for a place on the farmers' ticket, but that the nominating committee refused to consider it.

The choice of the convention included two Conservatives, Messrs. Roach and Fleveling, and one Liberal, Mr. Huggard. Later in the afternoon, the executive of the provincial government party in Kings county met to consider the resignation from their ticket of Eley Harmer, who had accepted the nomination of the county convention only on the understanding that he be permitted to retire if a suitable farmer candidate should be secured in his place. Under the circumstances the executive decided to permit Mr. Harmer to retire and agreed to endorse the candidature of Mr. Huggard, the Liberal member of the Farmers' ticket. This will complete a ticket entirely composed of farmers favorable to the government, two of whom, Messrs. Wetmore and Keith, were nominated by the government party convention and the third, Mr. Huggard, nominated by the farmers and endorsed by the government party.

An interesting rumor was in circulation today, to the effect that Hon. J. A. Murray and George B. Jones may retire from the opposition ticket, in favor of the two Conservative members of the farmers' ticket.

FEW OF OUR NEW BOOKS. "The Way of Unions" (Coulter); "Man of Silence" (Rath); "Harriet and the Piper" (Norris); "Dooms of Jeopardy" (MacGrath); "Toll of the Sands" (Delaney); "Returned Empty" (Barclay); "Maid of Mirabelle" (Robinson); etc. Rent them, F. Knight Library, Dealer. THE HANOVER, 10 GERMAIN ST.

Let Your Own Ear Be The Judge. Twenty-Five Pathe Records Are Allowed With Every Pathephone Sold. You do not require to be a musical critic to detect the vast difference in tone quality in the various phonographs. The Pathephone is tone-sweet, clear, true and incomparably lovely, — is tested by every Pathephone owner. A large stock of Pathe Records to choose from. Come in and hear it. No needles to buy. No needles to change and will play all records. Sold on Easy Terms. AMLAND BROS., LTD. 19 Waterloo Street.

NEW COCOA NUTS 15c Each —AT— McPHERSON BROS. 181 Union Street 'Phones M. 506 and 507. MURINE A Wholesome, Cleansing, Refreshing and Healing Lotion—Murine for Redness, Soreness, Granulation, Itching and Burning YOUR EYES of the Eyes or Eyelids; It will win your confidence. Ask Your Druggist for Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago.

POST TOASTIES make breakfast easier for Ma, quicker for Pa, and jollier for me — says Bobby. Order a package of these delicious corn flakes, but specify the name.