

POOR DOCUMENT

NO. 2035

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1919

COURT RULES AGAINST GEO. J.

Order Would Oust Him as Head of the $80,000,000
Gould Estate

New York, July 2.—George J. Gould was ordered removed by Supreme Court Justice Whitaker as chief executor and trustee under the will of his father, Jay Gould, on the ground that he failed to administer the estate properly. The court upheld three of eleven specifications against him, and found that he had failed to justify the confidence of his father when he named him practically the head of the $80,000,000 property, comprising the estate at the time the will was probated in 1898.

Justice Whitaker's decision against George J. Gould was made in proceedings filed by his brother Howard, and sister Anna, the Duchess of Talleyrand, for his removal, because of the acts which the court has found require his dismissal. The counsel for George J. Gould will file an appeal from Justice Whitaker's decision, which will act as a stay against the order depriving Mr. Gould of any further power as a trustee, and it was said that it is expected he would continue to act until the final ruling is made by the appellate division.

One of the objections made by George J. Gould to his removal was that under the will Frank Gould would naturally be chosen a trustee to succeed him and that many of the acts complained of were committed with his knowledge and one of the losses sustained by the estate was due to his own acts as head of one of the Gould railroad interests.

It is expected that even if the removal of George Gould is upheld by the higher courts he will make a vigorous fight against the naming of Frank Gould to succeed him. His explanation of the attack upon him by his brother and sister was that both were acting through malice.

Pale-Cheeked Girls Tired-Out Women Quickly Built Up

WONDERFUL RECORD MADE BY NEW BLOOD-FOOD
REMEDY.

Certain Results Guaranteed.

Pale people have pale blood. In other words, the blood is watery and lacks red corpuscles.

The stomach is weak. Assimilation is poor and food is not changed into blood. Naturally the system is robbed of vitality, lacks strength and reconstructive power.

Don't slip from vigor into weakness. Don't allow the appetite to fail, but instead use Ferronose.

You're bound to feel rejuvenated and strengthened at once.

Appetite is braced up, digestion is stimulated, vigor imparted to the stomach. Everything you eat is transformed into nutrient that supplies what your thin, weak system needs.

Vital, life-giving blood that makes your cheeks and lips pink—that's the kind that Ferronose makes.

The strength and buoyancy that defies depression and tiredness, that's the sort you get with Ferronose.

Every pale woman can transform her bleached-out appearance with Ferronose.

Not only will it improve looks and spirits, but by rebuilding all weak, tired organs, Ferronose establishes a soundness of health that's surprising.

For women and girls who want to feel well, to look well, to be well, and stay well, nothing known in the annals of medicine is so certain as Ferronose.

Concentrated cure in tablet form, that's Ferronose, 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct from The Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Not only Ads, but Subtracts, Divides and Multiplies as easily as other machines Add.

Specific Problems Met in YOUR Business

Suppose when INVOICING, you had this problem:

13,423 yds. at 5 1/8 per yard—$687.93
Could you find the result—and know it was correct—in 5 or 6 seconds?

Suppose, when FIGURING DISCOUNTS, you had this problem:

$887.97 less 5% and 2% —$840.50
Less $781 lbs. at 41 per 100 lbs. 15.30
$825.20

Could you find all amounts—and be sure you were correct—in 10 or 12 seconds?

Suppose, when FIGURING INTEREST, you met these problems:

$5000.00 for 121 days 4-3-4 —$ 79.88
$5000.00 for 211 days 4-3-4 —$ 139.20

Could you get the results of both items in 5 or 6 seconds?

Suppose, in PAYROLL WORK, you had items like these:

141 "cuts" @ 13 1/2c—$19.08
132 "cuts" @ 13 1/2c—20.82 4.29 16.23
184 "cuts" @ 13 1/2c—18.09 2.37 15.72

Could you find all these results in 20 to 25 seconds and be so sure of accuracy that you would not have to CHECK BACK?

HOW MANY WOMEN DO YOU KNOW

Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly," "I can hardly drag around today," and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaken their strength until headaches, backaches, nervousness, dragging-down pains, irregularities and the blues, symptoms of a female weakness, have developed.

Women who are in this condition may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore them to health and strength.

WILKINS PUTS END TO LIFE

Doctor Convicted of Killing His Wife Leaves Letter Insisting on Innocence

Muncie, N. Y., July 1.—Dr. Walter Kenne Wilkins, who was convicted of the murder of his wife, Julia, by a jury here Friday afternoon, committed suicide in the bathroom of the Nassau county jail by hanging himself with a rope.

Although the aged physician's pulse was still beating when he was cut down, and every effort was made by the jail physicians to save his life, he died a few minutes after 8. His neck was broken. Jail officials were unable to explain how he obtained the rope. During the afternoon the doctor had been busy writing in his cell. When he had finished writing he expressed a wish to go to the bathroom.

His guards allowed him to enter the room, where he climbed upon a chair, adjusted the rope and leaped off.

When the guards cut Dr. Wilkins down a short time later they gave him first aid treatment while awaiting the arrival of physicians.

Dr. Wilkins had protested his innocence, both before and after his conviction, and was planning with his attorney for an appeal from his conviction to be followed by an appeal to Governor Smith for clemency in the event a new trial was refused. He had appeared hopeful of eventually gaining his freedom.

The jury which convicted him recommended clemency, so that he could not have been driven to suicide by fear of death in the electric chair, it was pointed out. He was to have been sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Manning next Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

SUPPRESS REDS WITHOUT PITY

Detroit Drills Special Platoon of Police for Fouth of July Service

Detroit, July 2.—In preparation for a possible demonstration of force July 4 by Detroit "Reds" of the left wing of the Socialist party, supported by American adherents and supporters of Bolsheviki, L. W. W. sympathizers and other anti-government forces, the Detroit police department has for weeks drilled a special platoon of police for riot duty. It has accumulated 200,000 rounds of ammunition, and in co-operation with United States government forces, headed by G. Oliver Frick, district chief of U. S. immigration service, will, with ruthless hand, suppress any attempts to disturb or upset constituted authorities.

The government several weeks ago delivered in Detroit 100 army pattern rifles for use in case local "Reds" and their adherents attempt to duplicate the lawlessness of their brethren in Russia, Germany and Austria.

That plan—country-wide—for demonstration on July 4 have been under way for months has been known to United States officers for weeks, and active work has been going on to gather in leaders of the movement in an effort to enslave it.

Detroit has been picked as one of the cities in which an American branch of the Bolsheviks intend to make its demonstration. The local "Reds" have cooperated apparently with whole heart, on the "Reds" to organize for the Fourth demonstration have been circulated by the thousands. The United States department of justice and the police department have copies of these circulars.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Cockburn-Graham.

Hasen Earle Cockburn of St. Stephen was married to Miss Annie Graham of Kouchibouguac, by Rev. Henry Graham of the Methodist parsonage, 290 Carmarthen street, on Monday evening.

The bride was attended in a navy blue traveling suit with picture hat and white fox fur and carried a bouquet of white carnations with maidenhair fern. Miss Emma Graham, clemency in the event a new trial was refused. He had appeared hopeful of eventually gaining his freedom.

The jury which convicted him recommended clemency, so that he could not have been driven to suicide by fear of death in the electric chair, it was pointed out. He was to have been sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Manning next Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT.

The Kings County Court, Judge W. B. Jonah presiding, held its sitting today.

Mrs. Wilkins was murdered last February by blows from a hammer and a piece of lead pipe. Dr. Wilkins told the authorities his wife had been killed by one of three burglars whom they had suspected in the Wilkins home.

Dr. Wilkins left behind him a long letter protesting his innocence and declaring his belief that he had not received a fair trial. The doctor had spent the entire afternoon writing his letter of self-indictation and two other letters giving directions for the disposal of his body and the care of several pets to which he was greatly attached.

"Rather than be driven across the state of New York by Carmen Plant (a Nassau county detective) and delivered up to Sing Sing prison," he wrote in the first letter, "I prefer to be my own executioner. Besides, it was my attorney, Manning from looking into my face when he tells me I have had a fair trial.

"I am absolutely innocent of this crime which the indictment charges me with."

This letter was ten pages long and was addressed to J. P. Healey of Brooklyn, an acquaintance of Dr. Wilkins. The second letter was addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Muller, formerly a housekeeper for the Wilkins family, who now lives at Monticello, N. Y. Dr. Wilkins requested her to see that his pets were well taken care of. The third letter, requested that his body be cremated.

MRS. K. MORRIS DIDN'T LEAVE BED FOR SIX MONTHS

Was so Helpless She Was Unable Even to Feed Herself—
Tanlac—Makes Her Well and Strong Again.

"I don't believe I would ever have gotten out of bed if it had not been for Tanlac," said Mrs. Katie Morris, residing at 788 Second avenue, Northeast, Calgary, when a Tanlac representative, who had heard of her remarkable recovery, called at her residence, recently, to ascertain the facts.

"I was one of the first in Calgary," she continued, "to have influenza, and it left me with rheumatism in both shoulders and my stomach in such a bad condition that I could hardly digest anything. I was right down in bed for six months, so helpless I could not feed myself, and my husband stayed home from his work part of the time to wait on me. My food just seemed to be burning in my stomach. It was so sour, and I just suffered agonies of indigestion and gas. My tongue had a thick coating all the time. I was badly constipated, and my shoulders were so stiff and painful with rheumatism that I could scarcely raise either arm. I tried many medicines—some of them my stomach would not retain at all—but nothing helped me and I could get no ease or comfort for day nor night."

"My husband, while down town one day, was advised to get Tanlac for me. So he brought home a bottle and after I had taken a half dozen doses I could retain a little food and from that time on I improved rapidly. I have taken five bottles of Tanlac now and am doing my work as well as I ever could, but I never missed a single dose of the medicine from the time I began taking it. My rheumatism is all gone, too, and I believe I have even more strength and energy than I did before I was taken down with the 'flu'. I certainly feel very grateful for what Tanlac has done for me and I am glad of the opportunity to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and P. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

The 150th anniversary of the first public service held in St. John was celebrated last evening at Portland Point. The service was conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim, assisted by other local clergymen and addresses were given by Mayor Hayes and Rev. James Millidge. Rev. McKim is a great grandson of both Simonds and White, two of the four members of the trading firm which founded the settlement at Portland Point.

Having asked for silence in that "Temple not built by hands," and having spoken of the solemnity of the occasion, Rev. R. P. McKim announced the hymn, "All people that on earth do dwell," which was followed by the national anthem. Mr. McKim then read the portion of scripture commencing "The Lord is in His holy temple," and all joined in repeating the confession.

Mr. McKim pronounced the prayer of absolution or the remission of sins and after the Lord's prayer had been said in unison the verses of the 150th Psalm were read by the priest and the congregation.

The lesson read by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's, was taken from Acts 2, verses 1 to 12, and at its conclusion the choir sang as an anthem the hundredth psalm. The repetition of the creed and prayer followed and after the hymn, "Rock of Ages Cleft for Me," had been sung by the choir and congregation, Rev. R. P. McKim prayed for "Our city and rulers," and Rev. J. A. Molloy, rector of St. John's, read the prayer for "Our church." Onward Christian Soldiers was sung before the sermon, and "Lord, Hear Us Thy Church is keeping" was sung immediately afterwards.

Reviews Occasion.

Taking as his text, "The Wonderful Works of God," Mr. McKim called to the minds of his congregation what had taken place in that spot 150 years previously. He described in vivid word pictures the tiny warehouse, the little thirty-two yeasel "Betsey" on the stocks, the few houses and the newly built wharf and told of the arrival of the first ship which brought Colonel William Spry and Rev. Mr. Wood, sent by the governor of Nova Scotia, Sir William Campbell, to inquire into the religious conditions of the settlement. The morning service for the traders was in English, the afternoon service for the Micmac Indian traders was in native dialect, and the evening service for the Acadians who were working on the dykes, was in French.

Rev. Mr. McKim urged his hearers to thank God that today they enjoyed the fruits of the enterprise of those men. He referred to the development of St. John, whose ships were in all parts of the world and whose statesmen had made for themselves names of which she could ever be proud. He spoke of the brave soldiers who went from the city during the war and of those of them who brought back with them the trophy of Paris in the pursuit of sport. He related how Jonathan Leavitt and young Peabody had been dissuaded by James Simonds from abandoning St. John in their discouragement; Simonds words, "Some day ships will come here from England," having been more than amply fulfilled. Having told of the great promise for the future in the nationalization of the port of St. John, Mr. McKim in conclusion spoke of the need that the same spirit of religious fervor should inspire the citizens today as had inspired the men of 1769.

Before calling on Mayor Hayes to address the gathering Rev. Mr. McKim spoke of the enforced absence of the lieutenant-governor and premier, who had been invited to take part in the commemoration, and were most regretful at being unable to do so.

The ladies' hospital committee of the Catholic Army Huts.

At a meeting of the ladies' hospital committee of the Catholic Army Huts yesterday afternoon, Miss Amelia J. Haley, convener, reported for the quarter visits to the hospitals and the following distribution of gifts to the soldiers: 911 packages of cigarettes, 127 packages of tobacco, 1,129 oranges, 110 current magazines, 37 quarts of ice cream, 17 quarts of jelly and cream; also 137 Easter baskets to soldier patients. Other activities were spoken of including efforts to place a new piano in the East St. John Hospital. Plans were made to give automobile drives to the soldiers in the hospitals during the summer and to hold a picnic at Gondola Point.

In Millerton, N. B., at the quarterly session of the Presbytery of Miramichi, it was decided to confer with the St. John Presbytery regarding a division of territory for each within the province.

Having asked for silence in that "Temple not built by hands," and having spoken of the solemnity of the occasion, Rev. R. P. McKim announced the hymn, "All people that on earth do dwell," which was followed by the national anthem. Mr. McKim then read the portion of scripture commencing "The Lord is in His holy temple," and all joined in repeating the confession.

Mr. McKim pronounced the prayer of absolution or the remission of sins and after the Lord's prayer had been said in unison the verses of the 150th Psalm were read by the priest and the congregation.

The lesson read by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's, was taken from Acts 2, verses 1 to 12, and at its conclusion the choir sang as an anthem the hundredth psalm. The repetition of the creed and prayer followed and after the hymn, "Rock of Ages Cleft for Me," had been sung by the choir and congregation, Rev. R. P. McKim prayed for "Our city and rulers," and Rev. J. A. Molloy, rector of St. John's, read the prayer for "Our church." Onward Christian Soldiers was sung before the sermon, and "Lord, Hear Us Thy Church is keeping" was sung immediately afterwards.

Reviews Occasion.

Taking as his text, "The Wonderful Works of God," Mr. McKim called to the minds of his congregation what had taken place in that spot 150 years previously. He described in vivid word pictures the tiny warehouse, the little thirty-two yeasel "Betsey" on the stocks, the few houses and the newly built wharf and told of the arrival of the first ship which brought Colonel William Spry and Rev. Mr. Wood, sent by the governor of Nova Scotia, Sir William Campbell, to inquire into the religious conditions of the settlement. The morning service for the traders was in English, the afternoon service for the Micmac Indian traders was in native dialect, and the evening service for the Acadians who were working on the dykes, was in French.

Rev. Mr. McKim urged his hearers to thank God that today they enjoyed the fruits of the enterprise of those men. He referred to the development of St. John, whose ships were in all parts of the world and whose statesmen had made for themselves names of which she could ever be proud. He spoke of the brave soldiers who went from the city during the war and of those of them who brought back with them the trophy of Paris in the pursuit of sport. He related how Jonathan Leavitt and young Peabody had been dissuaded by James Simonds from abandoning St. John in their discouragement; Simonds words, "Some day ships will come here from England," having been more than amply fulfilled. Having told of the great promise for the future in the nationalization of the port of St. John, Mr. McKim in conclusion spoke of the need that the same spirit of religious fervor should inspire the citizens today as had inspired the men of 1769.

Before calling on Mayor Hayes to address the gathering Rev. Mr. McKim spoke of the enforced absence of the lieutenant-governor and premier, who had been invited to take part in the commemoration, and were most regretful at being unable to do so.

The ladies' hospital committee of the Catholic Army Huts.

At a meeting of the ladies' hospital committee of the Catholic Army Huts yesterday afternoon, Miss Amelia J. Haley, convener, reported for the quarter visits to the hospitals and the following distribution of gifts to the soldiers: 911 packages of cigarettes, 127 packages of tobacco, 1,129 oranges, 110 current magazines