ST. JOHN, N. B.

JOHN DAWSON DEAD AT DALHOUSIE JCT.; A PROMINENT MAN

Supervisor of Great Roads Under Late Government, and a Prosperous Farmer

(Special to Times)

Dalhousie, N. B., Feb. 6.—The death of John Dawson occurred last evening at Dalhousie Junction. He was a prominent man in the community and a successful farmer. He was a member of the Dalhousie Junction council and was supervisor of the great roads under the late government. It was always a pleasure for his friends to visit his hospitable home. He was a very successful farmer. He acquired valuable fishing pools after the riparian rights question was settled. His health failing, he moved to Hampton with two of his daughters and afterwards to Annapolis, N. S. Seeing his years advancing he returned to Dalhousie last summer and lived for a while with his son Robert at Dalhousie Junction. Glad to be among his old friends, he decided to build a pretty little cottage near his son's farm but he did not enjoy it very long. He was about seventy-five years of age, belonged to the Church of England and will be buried on Saturday at Campbellton. His sons and daughters will have the sympathy of many friends.

INTERESTING WILL PRESENTED IN PROBATE COURT

Thos. Gorman's Reasons for Disposal of His Money as Outlined—A Bank Case

In the probate court today, an interesting will was offered for probate. It was that of Thomas Gorman, a laboring man. He died in Dundalk, Ireland, on April 8, 1911. Under his will, after payment of his debts and providing for the erection of a suitable tombstone to mark his resting place in the Catholic cemetery attached to the cathedral in this city, he gave to his brother, Patrick Gorman, of County Armagh, Ireland, then residing in Hamilton, in that county, and his two sisters, Ellen Gorman, spinster, and Bridget Gorman, wife of John McGraw, who reside near his brother, all his estate to be divided equally. In case of their death before him, then it goes to the children, whose names are listed in the will. If any of them die before him, then it goes to the children of the deceased. The brother first named and the two sisters all predeceased him. The will names James Gorman, of St. John, ship carpenter, to be executor but he being dead, Thomas and James Donogh, the only children of the deceased's sister Margaret, and John, Patrick and Thomas McGrath, otherwise "McGraw" the only children of Bridget McGraw, widow of the deceased, were appointed. The will also names Dr. Richard F. Quigley of this city as administrator with the will annexed and he was accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate; personal estate consisting of money on deposit in the bank, $2,500, Daniel Mullin, K. C., is executor. King's Bench Division.

In the case of the Bank of Montreal vs. The Peel Lumber Company of Florenceville, hearing was had before Mr. Justice McKeown in chambers this morning on return of a summons to set aside judgment and arrest execution. This was a suit brought to recover $338 on a promissory note and the application is now made on the ground that certain rules set out in the judgment and arrest were not followed. The court considers T. J. Carter appeared for the bank and James Kerr, for the company. W. P. Jones, K. C., for the company.

MR. DIBBLEE AGAIN HEADS WOODSTOCK BOARD OF TRADE

Annual Meeting Last Night—Outlook Cheerful—C. P. Railway Gates

(Special to Times) Woodstock, N. B., Feb. 6.—The annual meeting of the Woodstock Board of Trade was held last evening and was well attended. The board has just voted a membership of one hundred and the treasurer's report shows the finances in good condition. The members are enthusiastic over the outlook for the town. Important matters were ably discussed.

The following officers were re-elected: President, J. T. A. Dibblee; vice-president, W. S. Sutton; secretary, A. D. Holyoke; treasurer, George E. Balmain. The following were appointed members of the council—C. Allan Smith, E. W. Jarens, J. W. Gallagher, Wallace Gibson, George W. Gibson, H. V. Dalling; nominating committee, E. W. Mair, E. L. Haslam; committee, C. Allan Smith; membership committee, Geo. W. Gibson, A. W. Burpee, A. F. Garden, Wallace Gibson; publicity committee, E. W. Mair, A. D. Holyoke, W. S. Sutton.

The matter of the C. P. Railway company not complying with the finding of the commission regarding gates at the King street crossing came up for discussion and a committee was appointed to take steps to compel the railway to put gates there.

HUM YING WINS CASE

Judgment Given in Chinese Note Matter Today

His Honor Judge Ritchie this morning delivered judgment in the case of Hum Ying vs. Hum Foo, a case which commanded the attention of the local city court for some time, and in which the plaintiff was suing the defendant on a note for $30. The defence at the time contended that the plaintiff, along with other Chinese was trying to force him to leave the city and that the note was a forgery. The plaintiff contended that the defendant had signed several notes, amounting in all to a considerable sum. He was suing however, only on one note. The case created considerable interest and it was said in the evidence that local Chinese had formed a society known as the Quong Ye Tong, for the purpose of lending money to other Chinese. W. H. Harrison appeared for the defendant and Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the plaintiff.

His Honor said that the evidence submitted during the trial seemed to favor the plaintiff, and consequently he gave judgment in his favor. Mr. Harrison applied for a copy of the proceedings, and will probably appeal the case.

During the trial evidence was given by Hum Be Thome, Hum Ying and Hum Gung for the plaintiff, and by Hum Foo, Hum Si Ki, Hum Song Tong and Lem Choo for the defence.

SURPRISE PARTY. Alexander Brown was given a pleasant surprise last evening at his home in Paradise row, when about fifty friends called upon him, and honored him upon his observance of his birthday. In behalf of those assembled, Henry McEachern in a few nicely worded remarks, presented to Mr. Brown a very nice shaving set in case. An enjoyable time was spent with games and music, refreshments were served, and a little after midnight the gathering dispersed.

LOCAL NEWS

THIS IS WINTER. Ice harvesting was begun at Lily Lake today and the St. John Ice Company expect that they will be able to carry out harvesting operations until the end of the winter. The thermometer today registered several degrees below zero, about the lowest this season.

WEDDING. The wedding of Miss Ellen Maude Reid and Alexander Duncan was solemnized by Rev. William Dawson at the parish of Zion Methodist church at seven o'clock last evening. There were no attendants. Both the bride and groom belong to the Zion Methodist church at 132 Paradise Row. City.

OTTAWA NEWSPAPER MAN. H. W. Digby of the Ottawa Journal repertorial staff arrived in the city yesterday on his way to his home in England and will be a passenger on board the C. P. R. liner Empress of Ireland tomorrow. Mr. Digby represents the Journal in the House of Commons at Ottawa. He will bring his wife and family to Canada.

BROWN TAIL MOTH. A crew of men engaged in the brown tail moth work have returned from Woodstock and report that the pest has been practically exterminated in that section of the province as a result of the extensive work carried on last year. Other parties are working near Fredericton Junction, Oromocto and Harry Station.

POLICE COURT. Three prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning. Two were charged with drunkenness. One of the two was fined $4 or ten days in jail, and the other was committed to the workhouse for three months. The third was charged with wandering about the North Wharf and not giving a satisfactory account of himself; he was remanded to jail.

FOR V. O. NURSES. The following donations to the Victorian Order of Nurses are acknowledged: C. W. Hallamore, secretary-treasurer; J. P. McIntyre, $10; Miss Louisa Murray, $10; Miss Maria Murray, $10; Miss Maggie Murray, $10; Judge Forbes, $10; Mr. Bollock, $10; Mr. Robert Thomson, $10; C. W. Hallamore, $10.

A VISITING KNIGHT. A visitor at the rooms of the Knights of Columbus in Coburg street last night was Jacob Anderson, collector of customs at Esquport. Mr. Anderson instituted the council at St. John, and has always been held in high esteem by the members of the local council. Needless to say, he was given a hearty reception.

HURT HIS HEAD. A man named Day, belonging to river, drove across the ice on the Kennebecasis this morning, but when he had reached the Main street he met with an accident in which he suffered somewhat about the face and head. He was driving from Adelaide street into Main when the sleigh slewed and he was thrown in the roadway, and his face and head cut. He was taken to the home of his son, Alexander Day, 72 Adelaide street, where his injuries were dressed by Dr. C. M. Pratt.

RECORD ATTENDANCE. At the opening Lenten devotions in the cathedral last evening there was an attendance greater than has been known for the devotion, owing mostly to the fact that the hour of 7:30 o'clock is more convenient than the former hour of 5 p.m., when services were held in other years. The services were conducted last evening by Rev. A. W. Meahan, D.D. and consisted of the recitation of the rosary, short sermon and benediction. The devotions will be continued each evening through Lent.

LANDLORDS AND TAXES

A correspondent writes to the Times: "If householders would notify the commissioners of the extent to which their rents have risen, it would save the assessors a lot of work, and the landlords would have no kick coming, because it would be their own estimate of the value of their property. A hundred dollar rise would mean at least a thousand dollars additional assessment."
