

Social Notes Of Interest

Miss Josephine Vrooman, who is the guest of Mrs. James P. Robertson, was the occasion for functions at Rothies, the hostesses being Mrs. Fred G. Mortimer, who had a dinner bridge and Mrs. John Sayre, who entertained at luncheon. Other hostesses on Tuesday were Mrs. R. C. Cruikshank, Miss Alice Lockhart, Mrs. John Gillis, who entertained on Monday, Mrs. E. K. Thurston and Mrs. Stanley Kirkland.

Those who entertained on Wednesday were Mrs. Allan G. McAvity, Mrs. Allan Rankine, who also entertained on Thursday; Mrs. Geoffrey Stead, Mrs. D. L. Hutchinson, Miss Maud Addy, Mrs. Edward R. Bates Jr., and Mrs. W. A. Robson. The Rotary Ministers were a big attraction at the Imperial Theatre.

On Thursday, Miss Addy entertained again at a delightful dinner bridge at her residence, Union street. Mrs. Frank Robertson, Mrs. William Steen and Mrs. W. E. Scully were also hostesses. The big event at the Pythian Castle, given by the Gypsy Club, was the dance attended by more than 300 guests. Mrs. Louis Owens and Mrs. E. J. Mooney were among those who entertained through the week. These accounts with many unrecorded make up a week of rush and bustle that will make the Lenten season a welcome change.

Mrs. Harold G. Ellis, of Rothies, entertained at luncheon bridge for five tables on Thursday, the guest of honor being Miss Josephine Vrooman, of Naperville, Ont. There was a profusion of spring flowers in and about the rooms and hall, pink tulips predominating and making the house very attractive. Luncheon was served buffet style and tea was served in the afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. Fred C. Mortimer, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Jr., and Miss Harriet Barnes. The guests were Miss Vrooman, Mrs. Fred R. Taylor, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. John Sayre, Mrs. G. Bruce Burpee, Mrs. Gordon Sanction, Mrs. Eber H. Turnbull, Miss Katherine Bell, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Jr., Mrs. Colin Mackay, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. John G. Belyea, Mrs. J. Walter Holly, Mrs. Paul Blanchet, Mrs. Alexander L. Fowler, Miss Harriet Barnes, Mrs. G. Clifford McAvity, Mrs. Horace A. Porter, Miss Anne L. Brock and Mrs. J. D. Pollard Lewin.

Mrs. William Steen was a hostess at her pretty apartments, 10 Paddock street, Thursday evening at a delightful sewing party for 18 guests. Daffodils and hyacinths made a picturesque decoration in the rooms and centred the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. J. Bingham. The dainty supper being served very informally. The entertainment was a pleasant change from bridge and greatly enjoyed. Those present were Mrs. W. J. Bingham, Mrs. A. S. Pattison, Miss Jessie Campbell, Miss Grace Campbell, Mrs. William Boyle, Mrs. D. P. Mahoney, Mrs. E. A. Dickie, Mrs. John Leonard, Mrs. Herbert L. Brennan, Miss Mabel Lewis, Miss Catherine Bates, Miss Bertha Bell, Miss Veturia Machum and Miss Edith Doherty.

Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton, who has been in London, England, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Henry O'Brien, of Toronto, has returned home from her trip abroad. Mrs. Knowlton was the guest of her daughter in Toronto for some time before she went to England. She was also in New York for

"Cabinet Women Not My Kind, Says Mrs. Johnson---"The Farm For Me."

By CHARLES P. STEWART.
Washington—The Magnus Johnsons' hot (?) water pipes were frozen.

The Johnsons had been out all afternoon—the senator at the capitol, Mrs. Johnson visiting the suburban school her children attend. In their absence the fire went out.

The senator was considerably heated by the mishap, but the house was not. Mrs. Johnson took it philosophically, as one of the inevitable discomforts of city life. "Modern conveniences!" she said scornfully.

Warm at 30 Below.

"On the farm," she added, "we never had such troubles. We burn wood there—in a stove. I never used coal before."

"This climate isn't so bad, but we can't keep warm. In Minnesota we could, with a wood fire, in 20 and 30-degree-below-zero weather."

Senator Johnson answered the door in person. He looked rather doubtful at the request for an interview with his wife.

"Mrs. Johnson isn't a politician," he said. "She's been on the school board, but she's a farm woman. She doesn't understand politics. And the newspapers have said some things about us that were all wrong."

"Now, that milking contest! You know, the one with Secretary Wallace. One of the worst mistakes I ever saw go into that. The papers said those cows were Jerseys. They were NOT."

"They were Holsteins."

"There's considerable difference between a Jersey and a Holstein," supplemented Mrs. Johnson.

Senator Johnson is hard to interview. He has so much to say it's difficult to get a question in edgewise. Mrs. Johnson is harder. She answers just "yes" and "no."

"You like Washington, Mrs. Johnson?"

"It's lonely."

"What, in comparison with a farm?"

"She does the washing."

"You're no time to be lonely on a farm. Too much work to do."

"But you find it INTERESTING here?"

Some time. She is gladly welcomed to the city after her extended absence.

Miss Beryl Mullin arrived home yesterday from a delightful visit to Quebec and Montreal. Miss Mullin was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Cannon, who left for Ottawa Thursday to be present at the session with her husband, Lucien Cannon, M.P., for Dorchester, Quebec.

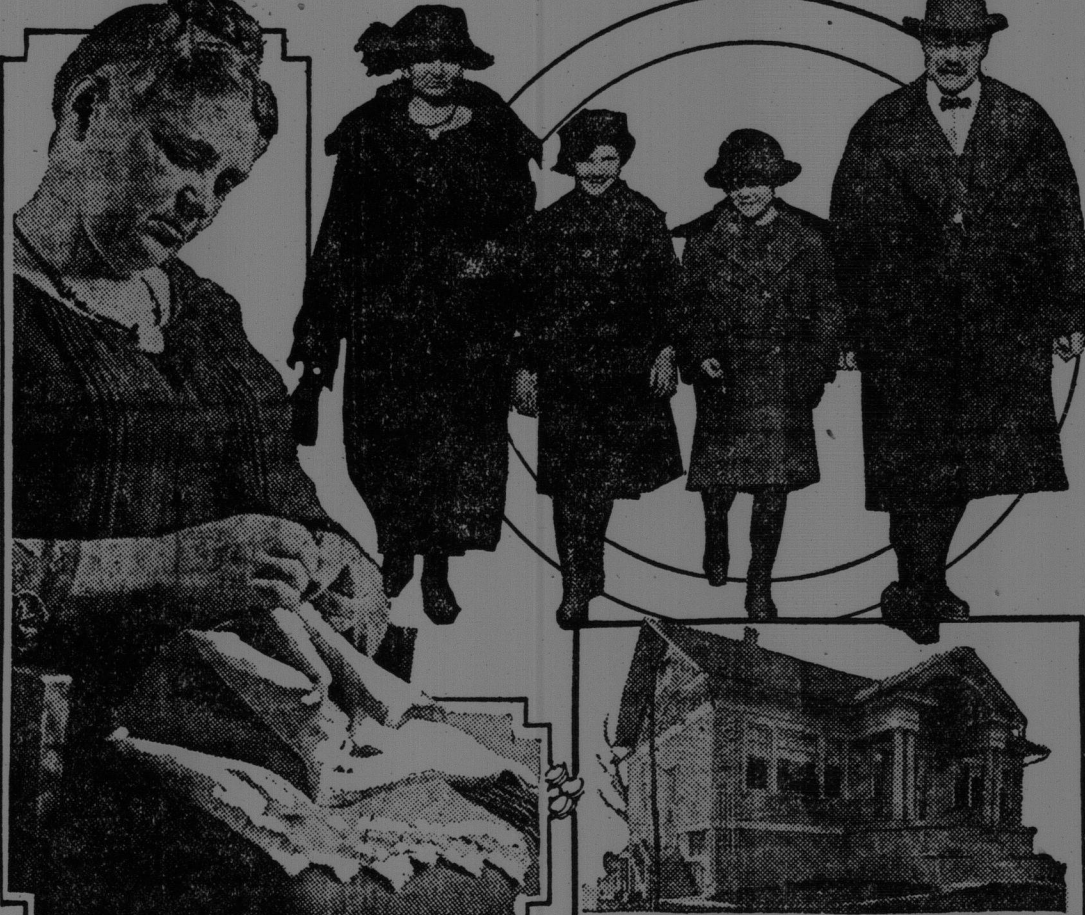

Mrs. Walter E. Foster, who entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her residence, Coburg street, was a hostess again yesterday afternoon for several tables.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mooney entertained on Thursday evening of this week at a bridge of ten tables, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart McDonald, who were married Tuesday in Halifax. They are on their honeymoon trip, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mooney. Mrs. Mooney is a sister of the bride.

The prize winners were Miss Amelia Haley, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, Mr. R. R. Beebe, Mr. D. J. Corr, Mrs. T. A. Linton and Mr. A. C. D. Wilson. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Linton, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Conlon, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. McCafferty, Mr.

and Mrs. James E. Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mooney, Sr. and Mrs. E. J. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Broderick, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. John McCluskey, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kerrison, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Nagle, Mrs. Struan Ritchie, Mrs. Nan O'Regan, Miss Amelia Haley and the Misses Marion Hogan, Rita McDade, Catherine Gallivan, Alice Ward, Margaret Ward, Beatrice Mooney, Annie Gossnell, Messrs. Beebe, Percy Knox, Harry Franklin, Bernard Mooney, Wm. McQuade and Captain G. Barbour. The drawing room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, yellow candles lending a soft light to perfect the artistic arrangement. Mrs. Edward Mooney, Sr., presided over the ten table at the supper hour and was assisted by Mrs. John P. Mooney, Mrs. McCluskey, Miss Rita McDade and Miss Beatrice Mooney.

Mrs. George B. Rivers and Mrs. F. Darrell Rivers were joint hostesses yesterday afternoon at a most enjoyable reception at the home of Mrs. G. B. Rivers, 90 Main street. The drawing room was a bower of loveliness, with daffodils and stocks artistically arranged. Yellow candles were used "In some ways, I have my housework to interest me. I do it all, you know. And the washing. I do that, too, just as I did in Minnesota."

"I shall GO BACK to Minnesota soon," Mrs. Johnson added positively. "I want to be there. In the spring the farm will need me. In the winter it doesn't matter much. I'll go back about in April."

"Of course, there's plenty of official society?"

"Oh, yes, I've had lots of calls—the cabinet ladies, everybody. But they're not my kind of people."

"Mr. Johnson's engagements keep him away a great deal, too—days and evenings."

"Yes, it's lonely."

"You're not interested in women's political activities?"

"I've never had time to be. I've always been too busy on the farm."

"We've never kept any help, you see—on the farm or here, either."

"Good help is hard to get now." This just to get Mrs. Johnson to say something.

"I don't know. I've never tried."

"Not like the days when $3 a week was the standard price for a maid-of-all-work?" Still struggling to make conversation.

"I only got $2.50 when I worked out," said Mrs. Johnson.

Half grapefruit, 1 cup shrimp salad, 1/2 head lettuce, nut loaf (2 slices), 1/2 cup tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons Brussels sprouts, peach salad (2 halves), 4 tablespoons apple soufflé, juice 1 lemon, 4 thin slices gluten toast, 2 gluten rolls, 1 pint skimmed milk.

Total calories, 1228. Protein, 238; fat, 317; carbohydrate, 58. Iron, .021 gram.

The shrimp salad is made with 1/2 cup celery and 1/2 cup shrimp, seasoned with salt and pepper and lemon juice. The lettuce is divided, supplying both salads.

The peach salad combines two halves of canned peaches with about two tablespoons cottage cheese and a squeeze of lemon.

Three-quarter cup sifted pulp of baked apple is combined with three stiffly beaten egg whites, slightly sweetened and baked in individual molds in a pan of hot water. Bake in a slow oven until firm to the touch.

Simmer canned tomatoes until thick. Rub through a pure strainer, reheat and season with salt and pepper for the tomato sauce.

Half grapefruit, 2 slices broiled bacon, 2 creamed eggs, 1 cup cream of potato soup, 1 cup shrimp salad, 1/2 head lettuce, 2-inch square gingerbread, 2 slices nut loaf, 1/2 cup tomato cream sauce, 1 candied sweet potato, 2 tablespoons Brussels sprouts, peach salad (2 halves), 4 tablespoons apple soufflé, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons whipped cream fruit salad dressing, 4 tablespoons boiled custard, 4 slices toast, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 medium sized baking powder biscuits, 1 tablespoon orange marmalade, 2 slices whole wheat bread, 1 pint whole milk.

Total calories, 3823. Protein, 511; fat, 1729; carbohydrate, 1888. Iron, .0155 gram.

The halves of peaches are filled with Neufchatel cheese, moistened with cream, and masked with whipped cream dressing.

Nut Loaf.

One-half cup balanced almonds, 1/2 cup broken pecan meats, 1/2 cup broken English walnut meats, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 3-4 cup meat stock or water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 egg.

Chop nuts and mix with bread crumbs and seasoning. Moisten with stock or water and when well blended add egg well beaten. Mix well and form into a roll. Bake 4 minutes, last with stock or 1/2 cup water with 1 tablespoon butter melted in it.

Total calories, 1175. Protein, 236; fat, 1098; carbohydrate, 501. Iron .0047 gram.

THE VARIATION IN BULK TEA

The quality of bulk tea is unreliable for several reasons. In the first place its origin and age is unknown to the housewife so that it does not carry any responsibility. In the second place, it is exposed to the air while offered for sale, and therefore very quickly loses its flavor and freshness. Even if it were as good as "SALADA" in the first place, it would rapidly deteriorate for this reason and in any case it would be impossible for any dealer to follow consistently the same quality throughout the year. "SALADA" always maintains an unvarying high standard, possible through skillful blending and careful preservation in sealed aluminum packets.

BUSINESS STUDENTS ASSEMBLY GUESTS

The second assembly of the Modern Business College was held last evening in the Studio with an attendance of more than 175 students and former students. There was a variety of dances, many of the novelties being appropriate for leap year. The programme consisted of 14 numbers and three extras besides encores. George J. Smith, manager of the Modern Business College, and Mrs. Smith were chaperones of the party, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Supper was served at the seventh dance. The refreshments were in charge of a capable committee, composed of Miss Helen Howard, Miss Helen Lawlor, Miss Mildred Lannen and Paul Lawton, chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were cordially thanked by the students for the pleasant evening, which is only one of many accorded the young people since Mr. Smith came to the city three years ago.

FAIRVILLE NOTES.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H., of Fairville, met in St. Rose's hall Thursday evening for a business session. Miss Mary Ryan, president, presided.

St. Columba Presbyterian church hall was the place of meeting of the Ladies' Aid this week. Much sewing was done. Tea was served.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

(Written for The Times.)

The First Rotherays held a Valentine tea on Friday the 18th. The decorations were very clever and the company was successful in making $29.55 which sum is to be used to buy hats and belts. These are getting more necessary every day as the company is that kind of one which keeps increasing its numbers.

The guides who served at the tea were: Joan Ross, Helen Dobbin, Mary Dobbin, Dorothy Dobbin, Jean Long, Ruth Menzies, Hazel Hoyt, Ida McGinnis and Mary Seaton.

Miss Purdy, the commissioner, who is also honorary captain of the company, poured. The Third Rotherays with their lieutenant were an important part of the guests.

On Wednesday 20th the third Rotherays were in line for an enrollment by the Commissioner.

The following girls were enrolled as tenderfoot guides: Ruth Menzies, Dorothy Dobbin, Hazel Hoyt, Ida McGinnis, Joan Ross, Mary Seaton.

Joan Featherstone has passed her tenderfoot test but has not been attending the meetings quite long enough to be enrolled.

The Second Rotherays played Neterwood at hockey on Friday the fifteenth. The team—Goal, Audrey Allison; defence, B. Miles, M. Henderson; centre, K. Peters, (Captain); left forward, M. Peters; right forward, P. Fowler; substitutes, F. Robinson, Anne Allison and H. Blanchet. It was a great victory for the Second Rotherays, 9-0. They may have been a little bit surprised themselves but they all agreed that it was a great game and the thrills were many.

Instead of the regular meeting on the Monday following, the Second Rotherays Company skidded to the Crown Nest Camp and stayed there long enough for tea to be enjoyed. The day was very fine so there was little left to be desired.

SLEIGH UPSETS AND CHOIR GETS SPILL

The Fairville Methodist choir had a disturbing experience on their return from spending Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clark, Manawagonish Road, when the big sleigh was upset and there was a jolly scramble in the soft snow. No one was hurt. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were delightful hosts, serving a delicious supper to the choir. Mrs. Clark was assisted in serving by her two daughters, the Misses Mary and Betty Clark and Miss Hazel Kelly.

Wonderful for Bread

for lighting. In the dining room red geraniums and carnations colored the well appointed table which was presided over by Mrs. Herman Gault and Mrs. George F. Bishop. Assisting in serving the guests were Mrs. Kenneth Gault, Mrs. Willard A. Smith, Mrs. Harry Patterson and Mrs. Harold Christie. Mrs. Harold B. Gault and Mrs. J. Cecil Mitchell replenished and Mrs. George W. Noble ushered. Red candles were used for lighting the dining room. Two hundred and fifty guests enjoyed the pleasant function. They were received at the door by little Miss Mary Rivers, daughter of the hosts, who was daintily dressed in a jade green Canton crepe frock, made with fluffy effect and very becoming.

Miss Mabel Scully, daughter of Mr. W. E. Scully, M. L. A., and Mrs. Scully, returned this week from Montreal, where she was the guest for some time of her brother, Dr. F. J. Scully, and Mrs. Scully.

The members of the Cliff Club enjoyed the evening on Thursday at their cottage, when covers were laid for 16 at dinner. Bridge was played in the evening.

Mrs. Elmer Alexander entertained several of the High School staff very pleasantly at her home, 75 Queen street, Thursday evening. Bridge was played at three tables. Spring flowers decorated the room. Confections were served in individual baskets, diamond shaped for the ladies and heart shaped for the men, to correspond with the score cards. Prizes were won by Miss Alma Gale and W. T. Dunham. After refreshments were served the company enjoyed a sing-song of old-time and college songs. The hostess was assisted by Miss Edna Perkins.

INVITED TO REMAIN.

At a recent meeting of the quarterly board of the Carleton Methodist church at which Rev. F. T. Bertram, the pastor, presided, Enoch Thompson, on behalf of the congregation, invited Mr. Bertram to remain as pastor for another year, and he accepted the invitation, subject to the approval of the Methodist conference. The financial statement showed that the debt for repairs had been materially lessened and that the church was in a flourishing condition.

SEWING CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Melley McKel opened her home on Thursday afternoon for the Sewing Club of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mrs. A. O. Patriguen, Mrs. Rudolph Phillips, Mrs. W. P. Dunham, Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. H. L. Blagden, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Hannah Maguire, Mrs. A. M. McCaughan and Mrs. William Ross.
