LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

1. The Library contains over five thousand volumes, to which additions are being constantly made, embracing all the Greek and Latin Fathers and Ecclesiastical writers, with standard and recent works in Theology and cognate subjects. It is under the charge of the College Librarian, from whom books may be obtained, subject to the following rules:—

1. A Student may receive from the Library only two volumes at a time, unless by special order of Professors.

2. During the Session of College, all books shall be returned to the Library within two weeks of the date of issue.

3. During summer vacation each Student may have five volumes from the Library.

4. Any volume or volumes lost or damaged by a Student shall be paid for by him at such rates as the Senate may direct, having reference to the value of the book and the set to which it may belong.

5. Professors and Lecturers may receive from the Librarian any books required by them for their duties in the College, not exceeding ten volumes at any one time. Books so used must be returned at or before the close of each session.

6. Persons not connected with the College may consult books in the Library or obtain them from the Librarian by special order from any of the Professors; such books to be returned within ten days.
