

OCCASIONAL STUDENTS.—Persons desirous of taking one or two courses of Lectures, as occasional students, may apply to the Vice-Dean for entry in his Register, and may procure from the Secretary tickets for the lectures they desire to attend.

[Associates in Arts, who, at their special examination, have passed in Latin, Greek, Algebra, and Geometry, are not required to present themselves for matriculation examination.]

Partial or occasional students (see above) in the First year, who pass the April sessional examinations in one or more subjects, will, if Candidates for Undergraduate standing in the First year, in the following September be allowed to count these as advanced examinations under the above rule.

An advanced examination in any one or more of the subjects of the First year will be held for such of the candidates as desire it. Candidates who pass creditably in this will be entitled to such exemptions from the Lectures and from the Christmas examinations of the First year as the Faculty may determine. For the advanced examinations in Classics, two authors in Latin and two in Greek will be required, and the books fixed must be taken.

Candidates for advanced examination must send notice to the Vice-Dean of their intention before the day of examination, stating the subjects of the First year and the extent of reading they purpose to submit.

The course for advanced matriculation in Classics is as follows:—

Greek—Xenophon, Anabasis, Book I.; Homer, Iliad, Book VI.

Latin—Cicero, Orations I. and II. against Catiline; Virgil, Æneid, Book II.

A paper on Greek and Latin Grammar, and Latin Prose Composition (Text book, Principia Latina, Part IV.)
